Executive Board Approves Settlement Of Long Lines Strikes

WESTERN ELECTRIC STRIKE STILL ON

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Government trouble-shooters shifted their attention today to the Western Electric dispute in a clean-up drive on remaining phases of the national telephone strike.

Two sets of negotiations were scheduled at the Labor department covering 42,000 striking employees of Western Electric, AT&T's manufacturing subsidiary. The dispute is one of the major unsettled portions of the National Federation of Telephone Workers' walkout.

Agreement Ratified

The number of NTFW affiliates still on strike was reduced to 28 when the executive board of the American Union of Telephone Workers ratified a wage agreement with AT&T providing for an average increase of $4.40 weekly for 22,000 long distance operators.

John J. Moran, president of NTFW's long-line affiliate, announced termination of the strike as of 6 a. m. EDT this morning but warned that long distance operators could return to work only where there were no other picket lines. He said:

"The AUTW is a member in good standing of the NTFW and its members are pledged to honor the picket lines of an affiliated union. Therefore, the fact that we have authorized a return to work by our

Pa Newc Observes

Wonder how many radio amateurs, known as "hams" are now operating in this locality.

For the third day in succession there was some snow here this morning, which probably makes an all-time record for snowfall in May.

Up on North Mercer street, a row of some small plants recently set out, the night in a row of upended bushel baskets and buckets as tents for protection against the probability of frost.

There still seems to be a large number of North Hill dog owners who are unaware that the law requires that dogs be kept on their premises, and are not allowed to roam the streets, according to a complaint made to Pa Newc. Dogs are not permitted to roam at large, under the law.

State highway workers were notified in the East Brook road this morning making preliminary preparations for painting white lines on the road. Over 12,000 miles of highway will be repainted this spring by the department, with some 100 miles scheduled for touching up in the county.

While local residents shiver and huddle around the fire, Mrs. William Ayers of West Washington street, tells Pa Newc she was talking to her daughter, Mrs. Irene Ayers Brown, in Phoenix, Ariz., on Wednesday evening by telephone, and the temperature at the moment out there was just 101 degrees. On May 1 it was 102 degrees above in Phoenix, breaking a 53-year weather record.

Printing of the May 8 snow scene on a county farm in Thursday's News reminded Horace Tressler of 1917 Beckford street of a picture he had in his possession taken in the grove at Cascade park. The picture, dated May 9, 1926, shows the grove bridge and one of the drinking fountains covered with snow, similar to scenes depicted yesterday.

Herewith is presented the architects sketch of the exterior of the new City building, as it will appear when completed. The building is now in the course of construction at the corner of North Jefferson and Grant streets. Plans for the building were prepared by Eckels and Thayer, associated architects on the project. The site of the building is the former Dana property.

Greco-Turkish Aid Program Is Near Final Vote

House May Reach Decision On Measure By Tonight Is Prediction

AMENDMENT ARE BEING ACTED ON

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The House strove for a final vote today on President Truman's program to aid Greece and Turkey to halt the spread of Communism.

The chamber convened earlier than usual, in an effort to complete action by tonight.

As consideration of the 400 million dollar authorization, already approved by the Senate, went into its fourth successive day, Speaker Martin (R) Mass., said the prospects for a final vote were good.

Topping the many amendments that remained to be disposed of was a proposal by Reps. Mundt (R) S. D., and Judd (R) Minn., foreign affairs committee members, that military missions to Greece and Turkey be limited to 200 men each.

No Expeditionary Force

They said the country wanted some assurance that no expeditionary force would be sent to the Mediterranean. They were joined by another committee member, Rep. Bolton (R) Ohio. All three are supporters.

Sergio Osmena Jr. Is Found Guilty On Treason Charge

Son Of Former Philippine President Convicted Of Economic Collaboration With Japs

MANILA, May 9.—(INS)—Sergio Osmena, Jr., son of the former president of the Philippines, was found guilty of treason following a lengthy trial before a people's court.

The three-man court sentenced Osmena to life imprisonment and assessed a $10,000 fine, then granted a period of provisional release with bail fixed at $25,000.

Treason charges against Osmena arose from his economic collaboration with the Japanese during the wartime occupation of the Philippines.

The court found that he had established various commercial companies which bought and sold goods during the war and supplied the Japanese with war materials.

At one stage of the trial former President Osmena flew to Manila from his home town on Cebu island and appeared in court on behalf of his accused son.

Warmer Weather Is Promised Saturday

(International News Service)

The weatherman advised May queens throughout the commonwealth to wear substantial garments this week-end.

Prospects were for partly cloudy skies and milder this afternoon with a bit of frost tonight in eastern Pennsylvania.

The seer said it will probably be fair and warmer by Saturday.

Snow flurries were recorded in Philadelphia yesterday for the third time in May since 1871.

An anticipated break in the cold weather failed to reach western Pennsylvania today, and the temperature dipped to 31 degrees at Pittsburgh.

Snow flurries continued in the western end of the state this morning.

Further damage to blossoming fruit trees and gardens was forecast as the weather bureau forecast continued cold with frost or freezing temperatures tonight in western Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg's airport registered a brisk 35 early this morning after experiencing a record all-time low for early May. Slowly rising temperatures were predicted, but were expected to fall this evening to near freezing.

Democrats Will Fail To Halt Tax Cut Legislation

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—Democratic members of the Senate Finance committee will move today to postpone action on the GOP tax reduction bill until July 15. But their effort was foredoomed to failure.

Republicans in control of the committee were ready to vote down this and any like action, defeat the Lucas Democratic substitute bill and complete action on the House-approved tax relief measure by nightfall, if possible.

A minority spokesman disclosed that the motion to put off tax action until mid-July, when more accurate fiscal facts on federal receipts and expenditures will be available, was to be the first Democratic move in committee.

Chairman Millikin (R) Col., predicted that the Senate will make the House bill effective July 1, in (Continued on Page Two)

Navy May Slash Funds For 1948

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—The Navy's request for funds for 1948 was reliably reported today to have been tentatively slashed 10 per cent by a House Appropriations subcommittee.

A member of the subcommittee, who asked that his name be withheld, revealed that a cut of 350 million dollars for the Navy Department is being recommended to the full Appropriations Committee.

A budget of $3,504,546,300 for the navy during the new fiscal year beginning July 1 was requested by President Truman.

A 5 1/2 per cent reduction also has been reported for funds for the army. A cut of 300 million dollars was said to have been made on the Army Department's request for $3,717,781,000.

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—James M. Ford Jr., 23-year-old veteran, today started serving a life sentence in Western Penitentiary for the "thrill" murder of a 65-year-old Pittsburgh grocer.

Fire Causes Navy Fliers To Crash-Land In Lake

CHICAGO, May 9.—(INS)—Five Navy fliers were recovering today from the harrowing experience of crash-landing in Lake Michigan after their PBV flying boat caught fire while cruising over the lake.

For more than two hours before they finally were brought ashore by a Coast Guard rescue crew the fliers were buffeted by high waves and one had a narrow escape from drowning when washed overboard. The men were participating in gunnery practice yesterday afternoon when one motor of the big flying boat burst into flames at 1,000 feet altitude.

Semi-Nose Dive Into Lake

The fire was extinguished when Ensign Richard Brooks, 22, of Louisville, Ky., piloted the plane to a semi-nose dive into the lake three miles off shore near Wilmette harbor north of Chicago.

Besides Pilot Brooks the rescued men were Lieut. (jg) Donald Ezly, 24, of Petroleum, Ind., co-pilot; two

Cold Damage To Fruit Still Light

Cloudy Skies Prevents Serious Damage For Second Successive Night

LIGHT FREEZE IS NOTED HERE

Although temperatures dropped down to the freezing point again last night in Lawrence county, damage to the local fruit crop is still believed to have been light. County Agent L. C. Dayton stated this morning.

Despite lowering temperatures, cloudy skies seemed to have kept the danger of frost away, and the hope is expressed that damage to the fruit blossoms will be more beneficial than detrimental, in that it will only thin out the crop and produce a better yield.

Some Ice Frozen

It will be some time before the amount of damage, if there was any, can be ascertained.

Some reports were received by The News that water froze in shallow places, which are most likely true, as the official temperature during the night dropped to 31 degrees. This was two degrees above yesterday's low point.

Two-tenths of an inch of snow fell during the past day, and light flurries were in evidence this morning, making three successive days on which snow has fallen here, an unprecedented occurrence.

Phone Workers Here Back On Job

Withdrawal Of Pickets This Morning Results In Hundred Per Cent Return To Work

SERVICE NOW ON NORMAL BASIS

Removal of pickets this morning by the National Telephone Workers, who represent the A. T. and T. Co. employees, resulted in a 100 per cent return to work by all telephone workers in New Castle, and conditions today were back to normal, N. N. Jagusch, local manager stated.

Although a settlement of the differences of the Federation of Telephone Workers and the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania had been effected last week, pickets from the A. T. and T. Company were still walking beats in front of the local telephone office and the company garage here, and members of the local unions were still respecting the picket lines.

New Castle was the only point in Western Pennsylvania, outside of Pittsburgh, which was affected after the agreement between Bell Telephone and the Federation of Telephone Workers had been reached, due to the fact that there were not enough pickets to surround the other offices.

Soviet Observes Their 'V-E Day'

MOSCOW, May 9.—(INS)—The Soviet Union celebrated the second anniversary of the German surrender today, a day after the American and British observances.

NEW YORK CITY THREATENED WITH RECORD MAY COLD

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—New York City was threatened today with one of the coldest May days on record as much of the rest of the nation shivered in an unusual cold snap.

Snow fell in upstate New York and flurries were reported in the New York area, although the weather bureau did not record them.

The temperature in New York yesterday was the coldest on record, 36 degrees, with strong, biting winds abetting the low temperature.

It is expected to hit 35 sometime today which would break a previous record of 39 for the day in New York.

Penna. Engineering Plant Gets Order For Lorain Bessemer Plant

Announce National Tube Company Award Comes To New Castle Industry

LOCAL PLANT HAS OTHER LARGE ORDERS

Announcement was made today by William S. Wheeler, president of the Pennsylvania Engineering Corporation, that the company has just been awarded a contract by the National Tube Company to build the new Bessemer plant for the Lorain Works in Lorain, Ohio.

The contract, one of the largest peacetime orders ever received by the local company, calls for fabrication and installation of four 25-ton Bessemer converters, two 800-ton hot metal mixers, blast piping, transfer cars and auxiliary equipment. The mixers and the converters are of a new improved design, recently developed by the company's engineers. While no price is quoted, it is reliably reported that the contract will run over $1,000,000.

Other Big Contracts

In addition to the National Tube Company contract, just received, the company is building equipment for many other companies, including a new Bessemer plant for Great Lakes Steel Corporation, Detroit, Mich., which includes two 25-ton Bessemer converters with all the necessary auxiliary equipment.

Final shipments are being made now on a Bessemer converter plant for the Monterrey Steel Company of Mexico and Cia. Siderurgica, Toluca, Brazil.

Huge Boring Mill

Mr. Wheeler also announced today that the company had granted a wage increase of 12 1/2 cent per hour to all its shop employees, retroactive to April 1, 1947.

In order to take care of the machining of large pieces of equipment, the company has recently installed a 24 foot diameter, boring mill, one of the largest on this district. With the order announced today, and with other orders now upon the books of the Pennsylvania Engineering Corporation, steady operations are assured for the next eighteen months at least.

Former Wife To Aid Oklahoma Man In Shooting

Send Word She Will Stick By Former Husband In Legislature Shooting Affray

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 9.—(INS)—The former wife of Rep. Jimmie Scott, accused of shooting a Senate Sen. Tom Anglin, 64, on the senate floor, came to his defense today.

Scott was held in the Oklahoma City jail on a formal charge of assault with intent to kill. His bond was fixed at $5,000.

Scott declared the shooting was a result of his ex-wife's divorce action and her subsequent suit to enforce a property settlement. Anglin's law firm represented her in both cases. Both Scott and Anglin are from Holdenville, Okla.

To 'Stick By' Scott

From her Holdenville residence the former Mrs. Scott sent word that she intended to come to Oklahoma City and "stick by" Scott.

She declared she still loved him and never had wanted a divorce.

Scott told authorities that he shot Senator Anglin Wednesday because the latter had threatened his life and made a move on the senate floor as though he were reaching for his pocket.

Anglin suffered a hip wound. Police said he also was armed with a pistol, but had not fired the weapon. Two shots had been fired from Scott's pistol, but one was wild.

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—The United States has ruled Yugoslavia—a Russian satellite state—out of bounds for American travelers.

This action was disclosed today by the state department.

The order was issued sometime in February after the state department announced that there would be a general lifting of passport restrictions on the tourist trade.

Sentence Two Japs To Death

Two Officers Will Be Hanged For Beheading Of U. S. Prisoners Of War

YOKOHAMA, May 9.—(INS)—Two Japanese were sentenced today for the beheading of 15 American prisoners of war who managed to survive the sinking of the "hell ship" Oryoko Maru in the closing months of the Pacific war.

Four other Japanese defendants were sentenced to prison and two were acquitted after a trial before a U. S. military commission in Yokohama.

The death penalty was pronounced against Junsaburo, one-time navy commander, and Kazutomo Aihara, former army corporal.

Scene of the mass execution was at San Fernando in the northern Philippines.

The American victims, who with scores of other prisoners had been crammed into the holds of the Oryoko at Manila, swam ashore after the unmarked prison ship was bombed and sent to the bottom.

State Guardsmen To Get Good Pay

Pay Scale Set For National Guard Personnel Announced By Lt. Col. Mitchell

Announcement of the pay schedule for members of the National Guard should make service in this branch of the service most attractive, Lt. Col. George F. Mitchell, commander of the 229th Field Artillery Battalion, stated today in announcing the pay schedule. Pay for the two-hour weekly drill period starts at $2.50 for a private and rises to $5.50 for a master sergeant or first sergeant.

This same pay schedule applies to each day of the 15-day period of summer field training, and longevity pay will be added to those who are eligible on the basis of previous military service. In addition to this, the state of Pennsylvania will pay each enlisted man the sum of 50 cents per day for each day of summer camp. Thus a master sergeant or first sergeant would earn $354 per year not including longevity, for 48 army drills and 15 days of summer field training.

The pay schedule for officers is equivalent to that for officers of the regular army on a day by day basis. The detailed pay plan from private to general is posted at Cunningham Army and will be explained in further detail to any men interested in joining the local guard outfit, who will stop at the armory on Wednesdays and Fridays between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 p. m.

crew members, Robert Merriman, 24, of Chicago, and Earl Singleton, 21, of Springfield, Ill., and a passenger, Lieut. (jg) John R. Bicknell, 24, of St. Elmo, Ill.

Before the rescue crew reached the scene one of the fliers, Lieut. Bicknell, was hurled overboard by a huge wave. Ensign Brooks quickly seized him by the feet and pulled him out of the water.

Because of the heavy sea the Coast Guard boat could not get close enough to the buffeted plane to take the men off immediately, but succeeded in getting a tow line aboard.

The flying boat was then towed to Wilmette Harbor entrance and the fliers were transferred to another Coast Guard boat which brought them ashore.

All had suffered from exposure and drenching by the waves.

ing the Eaton bill, a companion measure to that passed by the Senate 68-23.

The committee split sharply on the Mundt-Judd amendment with four other members—Reps. Bloom (D) N. Y., Richards (D) S. C., and Lodge (R) Conn.—actively opposing it on the grounds it might "shackle" the president.

The major test of opposition strength was expected to come late in the afternoon on an amendment by Rep. Smith (R) Wis., to delay the president's program for 60 days in order to afford the United Nations the opportunity to assume jurisdiction.

Another Important Vote.

Still another important vote was slated to be taken on another Smith amendment reducing the authorization to 200 million dollars and removing the authority of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to make 100 million immediately available to the president.

Rep. Bender (R) Ohio planned to offer numerous amendments, including several offered in the Senate to eliminate all aid to Turkey and provide only non-military assistance aid to Turkey and to Greece.

Supporters had succeeded in defeating all but committee amendments. A motion by Bender to strike out the enacting clause, tantamount to killing the bill, was rejected 127 to 37. Similarly, by voice vote, the House defeated an amendment by Rep. Douglas (D) Calif. to bar the sending of atomic bombs and other atomic weapons and information to Greece and Turkey and amendments by Rep. Javits (R) N. members may not result in a substantial return as long as other disputes exist in the industry."

Other "breaks" in the telephone strike were anticipated quickly in New Jersey where union leaders said they would recommend acceptance of a $4 weekly pay boost, in Ohio, where negotiations are centered on a similar increase, and on the Pacific coast where strikers have been offered a raise of from $3 to $4 weekly.

Key negotiations also are in progress in Atlanta covering the Southern Bell Telephone network and in St. Louis for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

The Washington talks involve the Western Electric Employees Association, representing 22,000 workers at the company's Kearney, N. J., plant, and the Association of Communications Equipment Workers, representing 20,000 installers of Western Electric equipment throughout the nation.

Both company and union sources reported that no wage offer has been presented yet in the Western Electric conferences, but progress was reported on so-called "fringe" issues. A company spokesman indicated that Western Electric first wanted to determine the economic cost of these items before proposing a wage rate increase.

The Western Electric Union, along with other NPTW affiliates, originally demanded a $12 pay boost, but trimmed this to $6. The settlements already involving 11 NPTW affiliates have been below the $6 amount.

However, the Western Electric unions are particularly insistent in their demand for a $6 weekly increase on grounds that it has been granted by other firms in the electrical manufacturing industry, notably Westinghouse, General Electric and RCA.

Washington Calling

Significant Election Seen In Washington

WASHINGTON, May 9.—An election that is coming up in the near future promises to provide a significant test on at least two of the issues troubling most Americans in this time of world unrest.

Much has been made of the Democratic victory in the Chicago mayoralty election and of the very close contest in Wisconsin's normally Republican Second district. But what happens in the Third Congressional district in the state of Washington is likely to get even more notice.

Significant Election
A Republican, Fred Norman, was elected last November. He died suddenly during the debate on the labor bill in the House. The primary election is set for May 17, and on June 7 an election will be held to fill the now vacant seat.

In many ways the primary contest is as hot as the election campaign promises to be. The Democrat rated as likely to win is Smith Troy, the attorney-general of the state. Troy was re-elected attorney general in 1944, while he was fighting in France with the famous 36th division. He has gone all out for the Truman doctrine of aid to Greece and Turkey to confine Soviet expansionism.

His Democratic opponent in the primary is Charles R. Savage, who represented the Third district for one term until he was defeated by Norman. Savage, in his congressional career, was closely associated with a congressman from a neighboring district, Hugh De Lacy. De Lacy was also defeated last fall in a bitter contest in which he was charged with being a Communist fellow-traveler.

Wallace Follower?
In New York, his weekly paper, De Lacy announced recently, with a banner headline, that Savage was a follower of Henry Wallace and (Continued on Page Six)

SOCIAL SECURITY ILLUSTRATED
Ernie Hill, a news correspondent writing from Balboa, Canal Zone, revives a column of the late Ernie Pyle, to offer an example suggestive of the effects of "social security" provided by the United States government for employees residing in the Canal Zone. Pyle did this several years ago before the great cry of "social security" was made much of by the Congress and by the legislatures of several States. Pyle wrote:

"The nearly four thousand white Americans who form the permanent staff of the Panama Canal are almost a race apart. It is a hard thing to describe, and they themselves will describe it in a thousand different ways, all trying to say the same thing.

OVERCOMING INFERIORITY COMPLEX

So many people write to me complaining about their shyness resulting from an inferiority complex. "How can I overcome this inferiority?" they ask. "How can I rid myself of this overwhelming bashfulness I experience when I meet strangers?"

Take the bull by the horns and conquer it before it conquers you! Come out of that impenetrable shell and act as if there is a spark of life in you. Show some enthusiasm toward those around you. Be cordial! Be vivacious! Forget yourself! Don't sit back in a corner, giving the impression that you are either too stupid to voice an opinion or too aloof to be interested in the conversation.

Do not hide your light under a bushel. Focus your mind upon those about you and the topics they are discussing, projecting it as far as possible from yourself and the impression you are making.

If you are not demonstrative by nature, become so by practice. Step forward with a hearty handshake and a warm welcome when you are introduced. Do not shy back as if afraid of being swamped alive. Enjoy as many fine plays, fine screen features, fine books as you can and they will give you food for expression. Avoid controversial subjects. When a conversation turns toward argument, change the subject.

The greatest asset is charm. If nature omitted it from your makeup, develop it by fighting introspection, sensitiveness and the tendency to be opinionated.

Remember the old saying: "If you have charm, you need nothing else; if you haven't it, nothing else matters."

Question: Is it proper for a widow to continue to wear her wedding ring?

Answer: She may continue to wear it, if she wishes, until she accepts an engagement ring from another man. However, most widows I believe, remove their wedding rings when they accept the attentions of other men, especially if they have no children.

Gag Of The Year?

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

NUMBER WORK IS CONFUSING

For a child to get on well in arithmetic, as in the intermediate grades, he must have mastered the skills of simple addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. Even then he can't go far without being able to press the right button—add at the right time, subtract when he should, and so on. Even while drilling formally on these skills the child may press the wrong button. Often parents will send me a page of number work by the child in which he added abstract numbers when he was supposed to subtract and vice versa. The child gets confused.

You can help him at home by setting the stage so he will feel calm and will work slowly and carefully. While practicing him on adding or subtracting simple numbers. Keep him for a period on the same process; avoid especially sudden shifting as in 8 plus 6 minus 3.

Multiply Or Divide
Confusion of multiplication with division comes most often with common fractions or denominator numbers. I remember my trouble as a school boy with knowing whether to divide or multiply in changing yards to feet or ounces to pounds—until my father helped me clear this matter up by doing some simple measuring in the kitchen and the workshop.

Encourage your child of school age when he makes things from paper, cardboard, cloth or wood, to measure the parts with a ruler or tape measure. Thereby he can learn the foundation of common fractions—halves, fourths, eighths, thirds and so on. Likewise he can learn basic common fractions as he follows carefully a recipe, measuring the parts or fractional parts of material used. Also from cooking and baking the child may learn the foundation of denominator numbers—relative value of ounces, pounds, pints and quarts.

Weights And Measures
Through such ways of learning fractional values and relative weights and measures, he gets the basis of ration, which requirement will seriously be needed for nearly all mathematical computations. A number of college professors of physics and biology have told me that the average college student doesn't have the simplest knowledge of ratio, so very essential in these sciences.

Some children who do well in mechanical operations with numbers have all sorts of trouble with verbal (reading) problems—with knowing which button to press—whether to add, subtract, divide or multiply. Either these children are very poor readers or are in such haste as to attempt solution before getting the meaning.

Haste nearly always is manifest. Most trouble in arithmetic is emotional. Induce this child to take time to read the problem carefully. Indeed, the biggest contribution a (Continued on Page Six)

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

There are a few simple pleasures left to us in this embattled world. It is now possible to have your appendix out to music.

In a Brooklyn hospital the doctors will take your request for six records and play them while you drift into ether land.

"Cement mixer" is good for stomach surgery. In fact selections range all the way to "South of the Border."

Dentists are also going in for "music to operate by." With them "open your mouth Richard" is tops.

There's one other note of progress. A New York dance studio is being picketed by CIO organizers. It was felt that the time had come to introduce Arthur Murray to Phil Murray.

The pickets danced the Conga which is not taught by Murray. This was in the tradition that pickets should be strangers to the picketed.

Just Folks

LETTER XV
Beloved, there's a little house you couldn't wait to see, And it is on a pretty street and cosy as can be.

I walked it through the other day and fancied you were there. I'm sure I saw you smiling as I turned to climb the stair.

Beloved, I am certain you went with me, room to room, And checked the shelves for china and the closet for the broom. That you nodded your approval very positive was I.

When I told the anxious children 'twas the house for them to buy. Beloved, it's the dream-house (though the builder couldn't know) That your heart had planned for Jannie in the days of long ago.

And when they are settled in it, in another week or two— Though you are not here to see it—It's that dream of yours come true. (Copyright, 1947, Edgar A. Guest)

Words Of Wisdom

Happiness is a butterfly, which, when pursued, is always just beyond your grasp, but which, if you sit down quietly, may alight upon you.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Here's a little more information concerning the rabbit show that will be held in New Castle on May 11th. . . this show is sponsored by the New Castle Rabbit and Cavy Association. . . there will be no admission fee for we who do not own or raise rabbits. . . But there is a small entrance fee for exhibitors, fifty cents for single rabbit and one dollar for Doe and litter. . . Don't know what the fee would be if a single Doe was entered and then later there were more. . . probably the Show Superintendent Walker Heckart would just overlook the extras.

Judges will be Karl Soutters of Akron, Walter Heckart and Mable Brucker of New Castle. . . and very nice prizes have been made available. . . any one owning a rabbit may enter the contest. As you know folks, this is the first show ever to be held in New Castle. . . and it's the hope of the committee in charge that they can make this eventually into a three day affair which in turn will call in many exhibitors from all over the United States. . . Remember this will make a very interesting stop on your Mother's Day tour. . . and it will be held at the big garage at the corner of South and Mercer streets.

The Bus Line changes that are due to take place next week will probably please a lot of folks. . . some people on the other hand will not be pleased for there are people who are not pleased with anything in fact they just poke around and if everything seems alright they stand up and say we don't like that. That's fine. . . if we all become pleased where would we be. . . but some of these people who are never pleased should make complaints about something that's worthwhile instead of little minor items. . . They should visit the various government agencies in this community. . . Learn what's going on in the City building, county court house, employment agencies, state offices. . . there they might learn something that will be useful.

With all the talk about who is going to run for what office this year. . . we haven't heard any talk about a veteran. Have the old timers tied up the entire shbang. . . surely there are some mighty fine veterans who know people.

Hints On Etiquette

When you are writing a note or letter to a person with whom you are not on intimate terms but to whom you desire to sound friendly, begin it, "My dear Mrs. R." In the United States that greeting is more informal than "Dear Mrs. R."

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

By reading the newspapers and magazines and listening to the radio I have just about come to the conclusion that family life in these modern days has become a matter of psychiatry rather than of love and common sense.

Almost every day some scientist delivers a pompous edict about the psychiatric relationship between parents and their children, about psychiatric rules and formulae of behavior and, in plan English, these scientists seem to be under the impression that the whole country has gone nuts.

For instance, here is a fellow who says that the traditional view that the bringing-up of children is the mother's job has been "blasted all to pieces by the findings of psychiatry."

Dad, he says, has a much greater duty than just "bringing home the bacon," and that he must do much more than just being the provider. I am not going into any further details about this particular pronouncement by the learned consultant.

I am just going to tell you a little bit about my own childhood.

My mother naturally attended to the things that every mother is supposed to do.

She nursed me when I was a baby, she told me all about the birds and the bees and she saw a it that I grew up into normal boyhood.

I loved my mother dearly, and I shall be eternally grateful to her. She is gone, but she will live in my love forever.

Now, take my father. Certainly, he went out and brought home the bacon.

But every evening, since earliest childhood, I looked forward to his homecoming.

Dad was my friend, my pal. There are lots of things a boy won't discuss with his mother, but he will confide in his father.

Even when a boy is four years old, Father is another man. Mother is only a woman. My father told me about wonderful countries. He took me fishing and hunting. He taught me right from wrong.

And, believe me, whenever I deserved it he gave me a good spanking.

Mother spanked me, too, but they were just little taps.

But when Dad spanked me I stayed spanked and each licking I got from him was a good and useful lesson.

They didn't talk about psychiatry in those days. But we were taught to respect our parents, and our parents earned that respect by example.

There was love in our home and common sense and affection and decency and pride in family and what it stood for.

To my mind, psychiatry in family life is something like a pressure cooker. It lets Mother go out and play bridge while the kids grow up on short cuts and "self-expression."

Give me the old-fashioned cooking pot and the old-fashioned rod! That's my kind of family psychiatry. (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

DEAD BOYS

Good healthy live boys are the hope of the nation. Dead boys do not help very much.

We should do everything we can to keep our boys alive. Accidents take the lives of more boys than diseases do. We worry a lot about infantile paralysis and tuberculosis and other diseases.

They do not kill as many boys as accidents do.

The summer is the time for a lot of drowning accidents. Boys are usually venturesome and reckless. They take chances. Mother does her best but Bill takes a risk just the same.

The city provides safe pools and playgrounds. They are provided with guards. Bill will be well looked after if he goes to the city pool. He will be more likely to stay alive all summer.

They Say

WASHINGTON — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower recommends a secretary of national defense: "I have found that most men grow up to the size of the seat they occupy."

KANSAS CITY—President Miguel Aleman of Mexico: "Peace is the obligation of the Americas."

WASHINGTON — Admiral William Halsey objects to merging the armed services: "Outside of a strategic air force for distant bombing I can see no excuse for an autonomous air force—and I don't know that that's necessary."

A professor proposes that union contracts be written in language anyone can understand. Such sarcasm comes dangerously close to being contempt of our highest court—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Stalin To Stassen Publicity

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The truth about ex-Governor Stassen's recently published interview with Generalissimo Stalin is that it was a fine piece of publicity for them both—but, otherwise unimportant. It leaves the situation between Russia and the Western world exactly as it was. It does not change anything, either nationally or internationally.

THIS opinion is not presented to disparage the purpose or detract from the quality of Mr. Stassen, who, in many ways, is a very fine fellow, indeed. Nor is it meant to discourage those who believe that the Stalin-Stassen conversation "opens new doors of hope" for closer understanding and better co-operation between the Russians and ourselves. It is set down here merely in the belief that it is always best to face realities, no matter how unattractive, and that the silliest thing either an individual or a nation can do is to delude themselves.

To argue that Mr. Stalin said anything new or significant or important to Mr. Stassen is ridiculous. To argue that he was not repetitious, platitudinous and inconsistent is equally so. To pretend that there was anything particularly notable in his granting Mr. Stassen an interview of more than an hour is simply to ignore the record. Naturally, it suits the purposes of various groups to insist upon all these things. For example, it serves those who blind themselves to the fact that the Russians, whose policy Mr. Stalin directs, have consistently and calculatingly played for delay in every international conference and have stood steadily in the way of co-operation by rejecting every reasonable compromise and concession that has been offered. It suits these people to hold that when Stalin told Stassen that there was no reason we should not co-operate and nothing to prevent agreement on atomic-energy control and all other matters, that what he said was significant.

IT suits another group to pretend that Mr. Stalin revealed himself to Mr. Stassen in a way he did not reveal himself to Mr. Byrnes, Mr. Bevan, General Marshall or anyone else. A third group enthusiastically applauds the interview-as conferring unusual distinction upon Mr. Stassen, thereby increasing his prestige and prospects as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. Of course, none of these ideas are true. As to the latter, all one has to recall are the interviews which Mr. Stalin granted to the ebullient Senator Claude Pepper and the ineffable Mr. Elliott Roosevelt. With characteristic thrift, the latter capitalized his interview by selling it to a weekly magazine. The former at once became one of the Soviet's chief oratorical champions in this country—second only to Mr. Henry Wallace.

IT is only fair to Mr. Stassen to say that Stalin's interview with him had no such personal effect as on the Messrs. Pepper and Roosevelt. For one thing, he is a good many classes above these two worthies. For another, he has not attempted to commercialize what he got, nor has his interview made him either pro-Stalin or pro-Soviet. It was entirely legitimate for him to reap whatever publicity the interview merited and that was managed astutely. But it is idle to suggest that he got anything from Mr. Stalin that Mr. Stalin had not given to other and less important and much cheaper American citizens who succeeded in obtaining an audience. Perhaps it may be contended that Stalin's statement to Mr. Stassen, that there is no reason the Communist and capitalist states should not live peacefully together, is new. It isn't new, but it does conflict completely with his own declaration written in approval of Lenin's assertion that "it is inconceivable that the Soviet republic should continue for a long period side by side with imperialistic states."

ACTUALLY, of course, the Soviet words—especially Mr. Stalin's—do not accord with the Soviet actions. They do not accord with the Soviet's refusal to permit the United Nations to make progress in the vital atomic bomb matter or in the business of organizing its own international police force. They do not accord with the Soviet resistance to practically every proposal at the recent Moscow conference, for reaching an agreement on treaties for Germany and Austria, as explained in detail by General Marshall, who also had an hour and a half audience with Stalin about which he has said not a public word.

THEY are not in accord with the almost complete ignoring of the Soviet authorities of the numerous proposals made by Ambassador Bedell Smith for exchange visit of students, musicians, journalists, etc., in the interests of better understanding. They are not in accord with Soviet absence from the present Geneva conference on international trade. And they certainly are not in accord with the ignoring by the Soviet Government of five official requests from Washington to discuss a settlement of the lend-lease situation between us. Until the Soviet Government takes some action to give force to Mr. Stalin's reassuring words to Mr. Stassen—and others—certainly, we are justified in being skeptical. When it does—and there is always hope—it will find this country cordially and quickly responding. In the meantime, Mr. Stassen's friends will be foolish to believe, as has been proclaimed, that the Stalin interview has greatly improved his prospects in the Republican National Convention. It was exceedingly good publicity—but that is all it was. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate)

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The government and people of Great Britain waited in suspense for reaction from abroad to the firm announcement by Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton that the nation's overwhelming war debts must be scaled down.

The declaration could hardly have come as a surprise to anyone. For the indebtedness incurred by Britain in her five and one-half year struggle against Nazi Germany is of astronomical proportions. Her government feels that this should be looked upon as part of an international contribution to the salvation of democracy.

Dalton, a Scotsman and an economist, made no particular allusion to Britain's recent difficulties in serving notice that a debt adjustment would be sought.

Something Of Exaggeration
But it was significant that almost simultaneously with his statement, a British official of renown published what he purposely termed a "flamboyant" article asserting that his country is dying slowly of starvation.

This may have been something of an exaggeration. Yet every traveler returning from Europe aboard ship or plane tells the same dismal story—a story incidentally that is handicapping the British in their attempts to rebuild a tourist trade and bring in more of those off-maligned dollars that still play an important role in the financial destinies of the world.

It is an almost monotonous repetition. No sugar. No cream. Little meat. Black bread. Ration coupons for every necessity. American cigarettes at 67 cents a pack. Shirts unavailable. No shoes unless you can prove your old pair are no longer wearable. There is a saying that you can spot a foreigner in London today by the mere fact he doesn't have a patch on the seat of his pants.

Beyond Immediate Finch
The plight of the British goes far beyond any immediate economic pinch. Critics of the Laborite government headed by Prime Minister Attlee insist that he and his colleagues are to blame for their bungling.

But Attlee's supporters in turn say that the Churchill coalition, under the dire stress of war and self-survival, squandered. And this argument is almost unanswerable. (Continued on Page Six)

Radiant Heat System To Open Up Coal Markets

See Expanded Sales Of Anthracite Coal Under Revolutionary New Method

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Greater markets for anthracite coal were foreseen today through increased use of the revolutionary principle of "radiant heat."

Delegates at the fifth annual anthracite conference at Lehigh University learned that the new system has proved itself in more than 1,000 new homes as well as business places since the war.

Harry F. King, field service engineer of A. M. Byers Co., Pittsburgh, described the improved comfort, fuel economy and cleanliness obtained through radiant heat. He added:

"The first cost of a radiant heating system is virtually identical with that of the conventional wet system, a fact that has impressed many architects, engineers and heating contractors."

King predicted that installation costs will decrease further when "coil fabricating and installing agencies become more familiar with the techniques of pipe bending and welding."

The speaker said that reports of 20 to 50 per cent greater economy in fuel consumption through the use of radiant heat may extend the market for hard coal.

Reports On Use

H. P. Randolph, vice-president of International Heater Co., Utica, N. Y., reported on the use of radiant heating with warm air.

He said the use of warm air in ceiling panels, as distinguished from floor installations using steam or hot water, had been undertaken successfully in test houses.

Lloyd L. Connell, technical director of Stoker Manufacturers Association, told the conference that anthracite stokers have been increasingly capable of "satisfying the most critical requirements of the consumer interested in automatic heat."

Connell warned:

"If anthracite is to retain its position in the domestic fuel market, it must be used in equipment which will make it as nearly automatic as possible."

Dr. Raymond C. Johnson, research director of Anthracite Institute, Wilkes-Barre, reported on progress toward practical application of the anthracite principle.

He pointed out that discovery of that great efficiency resulted when anthracite is burned rapidly in a small cross-sectional area rather than slowly in a large area.

Apples and stuffed peppers keep their shape better if they are baked in a buttered muffin tin.

EGYPT'S ECONOMY

LONDON, May 9.—(INS)—Gold found in the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen may be used to bolster Egyptian currency.

A Cairo dispatch to the London Daily Mail reported today that the Egyptian government is considering using the 200 million dollars worth of gold found in the desert tomb to back the country's pound note issue.

RACKETEER CONTRIBUTES

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—Allegheny county was $339 richer today because of the numbers racket.

District Attorney Artemas C. Leslie turned the money, confiscated in raids on numbers "joints", over to the county on order of Judge John J. Kennedy. Leslie said it was confiscated in raids between last Dec. 6 and Jan. 10.

It brought to a total of $21,582.50 such moneys put into the county's coffers in the past 16 months.

"AMBULANCE CHASER"

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—For the first time in Allegheny county legal history, an "ambulance chaser" stood convicted.

Max Kubick, 65, of Pittsburgh yesterday was fined $100 and sentenced to a year in the county workhouse for "unlawful solicitation of legal business."

Witnesses had testified he even had gone to hospitals soliciting business from accident victims before they were recovered.

Lodge Director Seeks Live Moose

Advertisement Mystery Solved;
Wants One Or Two Animals
For Highland Zoo

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—Gotta moose for sale? A real, live moose?

If so, there's a bull market for it in Pittsburgh.

A classified advertisement that recently appeared in two New York papers asking for a moose, male or female, today was traced to Pittsburgh.

The advertiser was Jack Stoehr, 350-pound regional director of the Moose lodge.

Jack, who admits he has to purchase two seats when he makes an airplane trip, said the lodge wanted to buy two moose (or is it Moose?) for the Highland Park Zoo in Pittsburgh. Said Jack:

"Mayor David Lawrence asked me if I knew where he could find a pair of Moose for the zoo. I told him I'd help him find them."

"Later the lodge agreed to purchase them, if we could locate them."

"We hope we can get them so we can formally present them to the zoo when we have our convention here in July."

He said he had had no replies to his ads yet, but added:

"I'm working on two leads now. One is a fellow in Maine I heard about who is supposed to have some live moose, and the other is in Canada."

Because of their scarcity in the west, the National Park Service at Yellowstone Park cannot provide Moose for the Pittsburgh zoo, although it was willing to send almost anything else, from snowshoe rabbits to bears and elk.

See New Hope For Bus Strike Settling

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—New hope for an early settlement in Pittsburgh's two bus line strikes loomed today as negotiations were resumed.

Today's meeting followed a three-hour session yesterday between the Brotherhood of the Ohio River Motor Coach Lines, Union officials and federal labor conciliators said "some progress had been made."

The union had rejected a 10-cent an hour boost earlier and held fast to their demands for a 25-cent increase.

GIRL SCOUTS

Besemer Tea

Besemer Girl Scouts, sponsored by the Woman's club, will hold their annual tea and court of awards Friday evening, May 9, at 8 in the high school auditorium. The scouts will present a one-act play, "Don't Tell a Soul", as well as songs, tap and folk dances. The troop committee, Mrs. P. W. Griffin and Mrs. Frank Beale, have charge of refreshments. The Besemer Woman's club gives the scouts $50 in campships each year, and proceeds from the tea will be added to this fund. Mrs. Ivan Henderson and Mrs. A. G. Snyder are leaders.

Registration Deadline

Miss Mildred Lusk, director of Girl Scout camp for the 1947 season, announced that June 10 would be the deadline for registration. In order to insure a full camp, registration will be thrown open to out of city girls after June 10.

Mrs. Wayne Stutzinger announced there would be a Girl Scout Workers party on May 12 in the Epworth Methodist church.

was opposed to the Greek-Turkish program. While Savage qualified this somewhat in an interview, as contrasted to Troy he is in opposition to the Truman proposal. Thus, the coming Democratic primary should give some indication of opinion on this all-important issue.

There is no such sharp division in the Republican primary. The candidates are Russell Mack, publisher of a paper in Hoquiam, and State Senator Herbert Sieler. They are both in the regular Republican tradition.

When it comes to the choice between a Republican and Democratic candidate, the Democrats will work hard to focus attention on the drastic cuts in congressional appropriations for public power, for reclamation and soil conservation. They will put the blame on the Republican majority in Congress.

Sought To Prevent Cuts

Republican members of Congress from the great northwest are insisting that they wanted to prevent the cuts but were powerless to do so. The Democrats, however, intend to make use of a record vote in the House which they take as a test of intention on restoring the money slashed out of the Department of the Interior appropriation. On that vote, Rep. Henry M. Jackson was the sole representative from Washington recorded for restoring the appropriation. Jackson is also Washington's sole Democrat in the House to survive last year's Republican sweep.

The election in the Third district should, therefore, furnish something of a test on the Republican economy program. While the Republicans from the northwest may seek to qualify their own stand, it is clear that the Republican Congress is following a definite pattern in clipping each request that comes from the administration. More often than not, this is done with an axe rather than a pair of shears.

The northwest is particularly vulnerable on the issue of appropriations for public power and reclamation. The tradition of public power out there goes down to the grass roots of local granges and the trade unions.

Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, most articulate of the Republican liberals in the Senate, is leading a fight to restore the cuts in the appropriation to complete the Bonneville dam project. Morse says that the big new aluminum plants actually need more power than is now available. He is frank in saying it is an issue between private power interests in the east and public power to develop the great northwest.

The final vote on Bonneville and the other cuts will come before June 7. They will be closely studied by the voters who must decide Washington's significant contest.

Husband Arrested In Death Of Wife At Bethlehem, Pa.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Geza Borsos, 62-year-old Bethlehem laborer, was arrested by police at his home at 9:30 a. m. today a few minutes after his wife, Julia, 54, had been killed with a shot gun.

Police said Borsos, father of seven children ranging from 14 to 32 years of age, admitted the slaying. Detective Captain M. J. Fox quoted Borsos as saying he had been a "very sick" man.

Chief of Police Edward Brogan arrested Borsos in his home and confiscated a single barreled shotgun which contained an empty shell.

Neighbors had heard a shot in the Borsos home this morning, and called Northampton County Coroner D. P. Bachman, who immediately summoned the police.

own brand," said Pyle, "you might say that they are the people who have had one of the fundamental elements of living taken away from them, or rather have given it away, and by that I mean the element of chance."

Government Does Everything

"Because the government does everything for them; because it tells them where to live; what they can and can't do; attends to them in work, play, sickness and almost in love, there is no mystery for them to look forward to."

The routine of these "kept" citizens is described by Hill thus: You start in with a small apartment in an eight family unit. You know that in ten years you get a larger one and after twenty years you get a home. You buy what you need at the commissary, where there are three selections in lamp shades, three in china and four in bedspreads.

Government Beneficence

Here, of course, is an ideal representation of regimentation and communal life under the beneficence of the government. In reality, the well-paid workers of the Canal Zone have little more freedom and initiative than the inmates of a prison or other public institution. Their lives are regulated—even their tastes—by a government-imposed pattern. It is true that there are no worries about security; the future is mapped as definitely as can be. But there is no hope of deviation from the set program, no incentive to undertake improvement, no chance of taking the risks and utilizing the special talents which bring special rewards.

Ernie Pyle intimated that life in the Canal Zone was pretty well "socialized." How many Americans want that kind of a life even with "guarantees?"

There were few English men indeed who would hesitate to give their last farthing toward an anti-aircraft gun that might bag one Messerschmitt or toward a bullet to catch a Nazi soldier between the eyes.

If the British follow tradition and precedent, much will not be said about blitzes, threatened invasion and the V-bombs that spread a now almost-forgotten terror.

Believe Gypsies May Have Taken Wisconsin Girl

FORT ATKINSON, Wis., May 9.—(INS)—Belief that 8-year-old Georgia Jean Weckler, missing since May 1, may have been kidnaped by a band of gypsies was expressed today by county authorities.

This theory was based on the disclosure late yesterday that the gypsies broke camp the day after Georgia Jean disappeared while on her way home from school.

The gypsies had been camping six miles from the Weckler farm home, and their camp site was near the same highway which runs past the Weckler farm.

Southside Board Of Trades Plans Improvements At Dinner-Meeting

Problems affecting the southside district were discussed at the dinner-meeting of the Southside Board of Trade Wednesday evening in the Charles Hotel, with president, Clint Snyder in charge. Dinner was served promptly at 6:30 o'clock.

Joseph Frenkel, delegate-chairman, conducted a get acquainted period at this first session of the group and introduced as speaker, R. O. Fredey, of W. K. B. T. "Keep southside in front," Mr. Fredey encouraged the group to promote better civic groups and above all "sell Southside first."

Discuss Improvements
The bus service in the district was discussed and possibilities of how transportation facilities can be improved. Parking is another problem that has to be solved, and with this in mind, committees are being formed to provide parking facilities.

For some time now, the board of trade has been planning to improve the playgrounds in the southside, and also to build a new one, thus diminishing the threat of vandalism, and delinquency.

Motions were heard to pave several alleys, and to install street lights in street corners. Chairman for this is W. F. DeCarbo, assisted by Louis DePaolo and George Joseph.

The Southside board of trade has decided to meet every second Wednesday of the month.

Other committees announced are: promote civic affairs, Ivor Davis, A. Meyers, Ted Marlin, Oscar Levine, Joseph Haber, Harold Lebo, Hartzell Houston; traffic committee, H. Houston, M. L. Samuels, A. Samuels, Harold Lebo, William F. DeCarbo, Ivor Davis, J. Frenkel; membership committee, M. L. Samuels.

B. J. Bondi invited the group to participate in the Sons of Italy convention to be held here in July.

Over 800 Women Special Guests Of Congressman

Rep. Kunkel Of Pennsylvania Provides Special Luncheon For Group At Washington

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—The cheers of 830 women were still ringing today in the ears of Rep. John Crain Kunkel (R) Pa., who feted his female constituents at a special luncheon.

The date cost the wealthy legislator-banker $2,000 but he escaped unbetrothed after the girls serenaded him with "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Kunkel started such luncheons in 1938 to express his thanks to the women who helped elect him. In 1939 some 75 women took up the invitation. The next year 160 showed up and the next 250.

Outbreak of the war interrupted the custom, but yesterday they came pouring down from Dauphin county, Pa., in a special train, complete with a nurse to give first aid when and if needed.

A $10 ticket covered round-trip rail fare, coffee and doughnuts for breakfast en route and sight seeing tours to the White House, Lincoln Memorial, the Capitol, Hains Point and the zoo.

But the lunch was on the congressman and it took the presidential and congressional rooms of the Statler hotel to accommodate "the ladies who love Kunkel."

Even at that 27 members of the Dauphin County Council of Republican Women were overflowed downstairs where they had to dine in another ballroom.

The United States has more than 22 telephones for every 100 inhabitants, compared with a little more than two per 100 for the world as a whole.

TO INCREASE HOSPITAL

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—Contracts totaling $593,853 for construction of a new wing for female patients at the Woodville state hospital in Allegheny county had the approval of the state department of property and supplies.

A general construction contract worth $448,853 was awarded to the Seisel Construction Co., Pittsburgh. The Steel City Piping Co., Pittsburgh, won a $65,000 plumbing contract while Carl F. Eberle, Zelienople, was awarded a $64,300 contract for heating and ventilating. Maue & Cozza of Pittsburgh won a $15,700 contract for installation of sewers.

STUDENT WIVES TO DINE

NEW WILMINGTON, May 9.—Student Wives' club at Westminster college will hold a dinner party Saturday evening according to Mrs. Ruth LaCamera, president. A flower demonstration will be featured at the regular monthly meeting Wednesday, May 14, at College hall.

Some newspaper presses are capable of producing 300,000 copies an hour.

Mixed Reaction To Martin's Reply

Harrisburg Political Leaders
Discuss Senator's Chances
For Presidency

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—U. S. Sen. Edward Martin's statement at Indianapolis that he was not "interested" in the Republican Presidential nomination was received with mixed reaction on Capitol Hill. Like many another politician he has enemies within the G.O.P. and they said he wouldn't have had to reply to the question put by a newsman because he didn't have a chance of being nominated. His friends, appearing to outnumber his political enemies, said he would make a good candidate in 1948 should he win the nomination. At any rate, they pointed out, he didn't make a "Sherman statement." When the Civil War general was approached to seek the presidency, he said in effect that if nominated he would not accept and if elected he would not serve. One thing appeared certain and that was that Martin would be Pennsylvania's "favorite son" candidate at the convention until a better one came along.

House Minority Leader Hiram G. Andrews was perplexed when he received a letter from a member of a professional women's club in which the writer did not indicate whether she was married or single. Andrews wrote back and among other things said that if the practice among women continued he assumed he would have to reply upon the oft-used greeting of "Hi, Babe!"

Sen. Joseph M. Barr (D) Allegheny, vigorous opponent of legislation doubling the half-cent-a-pint beer tax, inserted some figures into the legislative journal to bear out his contention that the high prices charged by the State Liquor Control Board in state stores had decreased sales. The figures, Barr said, were obtained from the Auditor General's Department and indicated a drop of approximately $13,320,000 between January, 1946, and March, 1947. In January, 1946, Barr said, sales amounted to about $29,145,000 while two months ago the volume was roughly $15,825,000. The board's policy has been to add its markup on top of initial purchase costs and state and federal taxes.

Gov. and Mrs. Duff have rented their Carnegie residence and transferred many furnishings to the executive mansion at Harrisburg and the beautiful state-owned home for governors at Indianopolis Gap. The governor intends to spend most of the summer at Indianopolis where he rides horseback and does some target shooting.

Bronze Plaque Honors Memory Of M-Sgt. Rozak

Donated By Buddies, Plaque Will Be Unveiled At Castle View Rites Sunday

Memory of Master Sergeant Charles J. Rozak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wasil Rozak, 303 E. Home street, will be honored Sunday when a bronze plaque is placed near his grave on Valor Ridge in Castle View cemetery.

Sgt. Rozak, who was first sergeant of the 902nd Engineer company, was killed in a jeep accident in Germany, August 24, 1946. He had served in the Regular Army since 1938 and seen action in two theaters of war. His remains were brought here shortly after the fatal mishap and interred in the plot reserved for war veterans at the cemetery.

Buddies Raise Funds

Funds for the plaque, which measures 46 by 14 inches, were voluntarily given by Sgt. Rozak's overseas buddies. The total contributed was $706.10, of which a certain amount will be kept in a trust fund for the permanent maintenance and floral decoration of the grave.

A formal ceremony will mark the unveiling of the plaque, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. Fr. Andrew L. Sabak of St. Nicholas church will pronounce the invocation, while the dedication address will be made by Jacob Wachtman, V.F.W. and American Legion posts will conduct a special military ceremony at the site.

The plaque will be placed near the entrance to the powder house replica in the special veterans' section of the grounds.

Mrs. Lyle Hughes of the Red Cross home service committee is in charge of arrangements for the ceremony.

Giant Aerial Maneuvers Set For East Area

Greatest Peacetime Exercises Will Be Held Along Seaboard Within 10 Days

By LEE VAN ATTA
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 9. — The greatest aerial maneuvers in America's peacetime history are scheduled for the eastern seaboard "sometime within the next ten days".

Gen. George C. Kenney, chief of the U. S. Strategic Air Command, revealed today that more than 100 mighty B-29 Superfortresses will be engaged in the full-scale sky training exercises.

Kenney declared that the bomber armada would sweep the east coast from New York to Washington on a date to be determined by long-range weather forecasts but definitely before May 20.

The huge four-engined aircraft are expected to roar over midtown Manhattan shortly after noon of the day picked for the unique mission and will be winging over the national capital about one hour later.

The maneuvers, described by Kenney as full-scale but nevertheless training operations, will provide the east coast with its first view of a Superfortress armada on parade.

New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Washington and Virginia will all be eyewitnesses to the armada's progress, while mid and southwest states will see elements of it en route to the rendezvous point off the Empire City.

To Test Tactics, Crews
Kenney said:

"The mission is primarily designed to test new techniques in long range rendezvous tactics and to provide extremely valuable training for combat crews of strategic air command."

Down to every detail except advance announcement of the mission, the maneuvers will be identical with the air forces' epochal Superfort war-time operations.

Kenney said that elements of the Eighth U. S. Air Force, stationed at Ft. Worth, Tex., and of the Fifteenth Air Force, based at Colorado Springs, Colo., would participate.

But all through the night prior to staging of the maneuvers, squadrons of B-29s will be roaring from their air bases at Tucson, Ariz., Rapid City, S. D., Tampa, Fla., and Roswell, N. M.

Late "M-Day" morning, the bomber force will rendezvous somewhere in the Atlantic off New York City and will converge on Manhattan in waves of "V" shaped formations.

The force will almost completely cover Manhattan Island as it streams over at unusually low altitudes.

Kenney himself will be aloft with the force as will Brig. Gen. Roger Ramey, leader of the Eighth and a wartime Pacific Superfortress hero and Brig. Gen. Leon Johnson, chief of the Fifteenth and Congressional Medal of Honor winner for his part in the Ploesti oil field attacks.

The veteran four-starred leader said:

"This will be the greatest number of B-29s in a single formation seen in either war or peace. It should impress on everyone the immense striking potential, and the quality vital flexibility, of modern airpower in action."

Old King Cole of the nursery rhyme is usually identified with the semi-mythical King Collins, Coll or Cole, who, on doubtful testimony, is said to have succeeded Asclepiodotus on the throne of Britain in the third century after Christ. It is said that Colchester, whose walls he built, was named after him and a large earthwork in that city, supposed to have been a Roman amphitheater, is called "King Cole's Kitchen".

First Bather

First bather of the pre-summer season at Atlantic City is curvaceous Pat Patrick. Pat has taken a dip in the ocean every year in the latter part of April for seven years. "Very exhilarating," says Pat. "Evidently good for the figure," says we.

Youth Confesses Slaying His Older Half-Brother

AUBURN, Me., May 9.—(INS)—Police said today an 18-year-old farmboy confessed he slew his older half-brother and attempted to hide his crime in an oil barrel sunk in the Androscoggin river.

Edward Chadbourne, 18, broke down and sobbed out to authorities details of the death of his ex-marine half-brother, Bertrand Leo L'clair, 35, after maintaining his innocence for three days.

He said the slaying of Bertrand followed a violent quarrel over his romance with a 15-year-old farm girl. He said his brother thought he and the girl were too young to wed.

Police listened incredulously as Chadbourne told of going on a fishing trip with Bertrand, and killing him with a piece of pipe after the elder brother tried to talk him into breaking up with the girl.

Averages paid on U. S. railroads increased from about $17 a week in 1916 to almost $60 a week in 1946.

Summer Schedule Hours Probable

Court House May Operate On 8 To 4 Schedule Starting On June 1

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Offices of the court house will probably open at eight in the morning and close at four in the afternoon beginning June 1. This action is probable, following the announcement of Attorney Edward M. Rea, secretary of the Lawrence County Bar Association to the commissioners that law offices would observe these hours.

The action will follow that of previous years when the court house operated from eight to four during the summer months.

Every Line is a look at Tomorrow

YOU spot it on the highway every time a Buick comes along:

Here you meet the future face-to-face.

Here you see the clean, rich, uncluttered design that marks the swing away from what was to what is going to be.

Here's the sweep and flow of fender line that's called for by a streamlined age — here's the solid, steady look that spells roadability — the broad beam that means room — the massive bonnet that tells of Fireball power aplenty.

Here's grace, here's ability, here's sturdy dependability — all wrapped up in one handsome package that's not merely up-to-the-times but ahead of it.

Here are the good looks that bespeak good works; you hardly have to be told of precisions carried to ten-thousandths of an inch, of materials searched out from the finest to be found.

Any wonder that such a creation is America's most wanted automobile? Any wonder people pass up cars that may be easier to get to wait for a car that's going to stay fresh and new and modern-looking?

Foresee Home Building Boom

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—The Department of Labor and Industry today said at 121 per cent increase in the number of construction permits issued during March indicated the start of a home building boom.

The department warned that the estimated cost of new dwellings had gone up 96.9 per cent during the same period.

The demand for homes rose 113 per cent but was 44.6 per cent lower than during March of 1946, the department reported.

Permits issued for commercial and industrial buildings were 40 per cent higher during March while estimated costs dropped nearly 60 per cent, according to the department. Estimated expenses for general repairs declined 57 per cent.

More For Liquor Than Education

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—Pennsylvanians were accused today of placing a higher value on intoxicants than on their children. Rev. Roy Schreiner, editor of the Church Advocate, told the Harrisburg branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union that $702,000,000 was spent in the Keystone state for liquor last year compared with a $225,000,000 expenditure on education.

To freshen stale or wilted vegetables, soak them for an hour in cold water to which some vinegar or lemon juice has been added.

President Truman Is Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1947, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)
INDEPENDENCE, Mo., May 9.—This is a typical small western city. Its life depends largely on the farmers living about. They are industrious and honest people in Independence and, as the name suggests, they are both democratic and independent.

Their Idea Of Truman
The townspeople had known Harry Truman as an unsuccessful storekeeper who was more interested in politics than in business. In those days this required faithfulness to the Pendergast machine. Hence, his independence friends were not surprised when he was rewarded with petty political jobs. When, however, he was made U. S. senator by the Pendergast gang, their respect both for the U. S. Senate and the Pendergast machine, fell pretty far and low.

As time went on, the townspeople came to believe that "Truman is as good as the rest of that bunch down in Washington and perhaps a little better." However, when their fellow townsman was nominated and elected vice president, they again were shocked and again became skeptical of the whole U. S. government. These Independence people are still asking today: "Tell us—Mr. Babson—why did President Roosevelt want him as a running mate? He must have known that he himself would not live to finish off his term."

Truman's First Two Years
The way President Truman acted in the early part of his term confirmed the pessimistic fears of his townspeople. His appointments, his public statements and his private acts appeared to be those of a small town politician who simply did not know what it was all about. His apparent desire to please everyone, brought him enemies both amongst the New Dealers and the Conservatives. Truman's stock tumbled thick and fast, even though he started out with a friendly press.

Everyone out here agrees that Harry Truman is honest and wants to do what is right. He is modest and doesn't think he has the answers to all the questions. He is willing and anxious to take advice from those whom he trusts. All this means that Truman's future and the country's future, for that matter, depends upon these friends to whom Truman turns for advice. If these men are honest and wise, Truman will make a good president. Today his followers appear to be such.

Will Truman Be Re-Elected?
If the presidential election had been a year ago, Truman would have been terribly defeated. If the election were today, Truman would have a good chance for re-election. Probably the answer lies with how he handles the veto power during the next year—and who is to be his running mate. Owing to the recent deaths in office of President Harding and President Roosevelt, voters are beginning to consider the vice presidential candidate of both tickets. Hence, it is especially important that President Truman have a strong running mate. This brings me to the chief new item of news which I got in Independence, Mo.

The people of Truman's city believe that Secretary of State George C. Marshall will be the running mate. "Didn't he promise that he would not run for the presidency?" I asked. To this question the reply was "Yes, but that applied only to the presidency. Marshall never promised he would not accept the vice presidential nomination." These people here believe that Mr. Marshall will stick to his trade and that Mr. Truman and his backers so believe. Hence, they are free to build up Mr. Marshall anticipating his nomination for vice president.

Stock Market Discounts
When in Kansas City and St. Louis I asked friends: "What's the matter with the stock market?" They replied: "The stock market today is now discounting Truman's re-election in 1948!" I pass this along only as your reporter without comment.

AUTO SMASH TOLL THREE
UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—The toll in an auto-truck crash near Uniontown last Saturday had reached three today with the death in Uniontown hospital late yesterday of Mrs. Daisy Babcock, 50. Her husband, Albert, and Frank Hips, an actor, both of Pittsburgh, were instantly killed in the crash. Hips' wife, Pearl, and Miss Frances Miller, also of Pittsburgh, were seriously injured.

Predicts Social Security Tax Will Be Frozen

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—Sen. Millikin (R) Colo., chairman of the Senate Republican conference, predicted today that Congress will freeze the social security tax at one percent for another year.

Millikin made his statement after a meeting of all Republican senators under his chairmanship, at which the GOP policy committee was directed to consult House leaders on the outlook for action on other social legislation at this session of Congress.

Millikin is also chairman of the senate finance committee, which will consider social security legislation involving deductions for old age and survivors insurance. Congress has "frozen" the payroll deduction at one percent since 1938. If Congress fails to continue the freeze at this session, the tax would jump to two and one half percent.

Millikin said: "I think we will freeze the old age reduction for another year. That will cover the period when the social security act and revenues are being studied for an over-all revision."

BELIEVE BOMBINGS IN TEL AVIV WILL OPEN NEW VIOLENCE

JERUSALEM, May 9.—(INS)—Four incendiary bomb fires started by masked raiders in shops in the center of Tel Aviv were believed today to presage a wave of violence against Jewish storekeepers selling foreign goods.

The estimated damage caused by the fires totalled 80 thousand dollars.

The raiders, believed to be members of the Jewish underground, in each case adopted the same technique. They drove up in taxis, ordered the owner and staff out of the stores, and beat up those who refused to obey.

A Palestine Jew was killed and another wounded by Arab armed guards stationed at a roadblock near Latrun.

According to accurate measuring devices, the length of the terrestrial day is lengthening one-thousandth of a second every century because of the gradual slowing of the earth's axial rotation.

Old Time City Events Revealed By Ordinances

Time was when New Castle was not as large as it now is, and cattle, hogs, sheep, goats, horses and mules were apt to roam at large, and when they did, it was the duty of the keeper of the pound to take them in charge.

He usually kept the animals for five days, during which time he advertised them by posting notices at the mayor's office, courthouse and post-office.

Providing the owners collected their "run-aways" before the advertisements were posted he could recover 'em for 50 cents, but after the posting of 'ads', he had to pay one dollar.

Could Draw Hard Labor
For knowingly permitting their animals to stroll at will, one could be fined as low as two dollars and as much as eight dollars, with the alternative of spending five days in jail.

The ordinance was strict relative to hindering the efforts of the pound-keeper to apprehend the cattle, sheep, goats, or what have you. Fifty dollars or five days at hard labor was the penalty. The ordinance was adopted June 30, 1885.

Annex Mahoningtown

Mahoningtown was annexed as a part of the City of New Castle on January 12, 1898, according to an ancient city law. It came about through three-fifths of the inhabitants of that borough petitioning town council (of Mahoningtown) for the annexation. An ordinance, pursuant to the petition was approved by the chief burgess, December 17, 1897 and was quickly followed by the Select and Common Councils of New Castle passing an ordinance making annexation possible.

Watched Performances

Back in 1904, October 26, to be exact, the city council adopted an ordinance which prohibited entertainments that incited to crime, or debauch or corrupt morals. The measure prohibited the renting of places for such entertainments and imposed fines ranging as high as $100 for violation.

Calls On Nation To Halt Huge Fire Losses

WASHINGTON, May 9.—President Truman called on state and local government officials to join the Federal government in mapping a program to cut the nation's "staggering" fire loss.

The President told the opening session of the National Conference on Fire Prevention that fires destroyed more than $580,000,000 of the nation's wealth during the last 12 months.

"The loss for 1947 will be more than three-quarters of a billion dollars unless we can reduce the present rate," he said.

2,000 Children Die
Mr. Truman added that no "dollar value" can be placed on lives lost in fires. He said an average of 2,000 children die every year from burns while thousands are scarred for life.

The President mentioned the parallel efforts toward reducing the death toll from automobile accidents.

As a result of the conference on automobile accidents last year, we estimate that we have saved 6,000 lives in this past year," he said.

"It was well worth the effort, but it is still not enough. I sincerely hope that you will earnestly go to work on this other phase, this unnecessary loss of life by fire, and will make a contribution equal to the one that was made by the effort to stop automobile accidents."

Mr. Truman said there are 23,000,000 Americans who have been physically injured in some manner, either in automobile wrecks, by fires or in other accidents.

"Most of these people were unnecessarily injured," he said.

Cites Texas City Disaster
Mr. Truman called attention to the recent Texas City disaster and said it "drove home anew the lesson that we must find ways and means to combat the ever-present danger of fire and explosion." He also referred to the hotel fires of last year which "again showed that we cannot afford to entrust our citizens' lives to unsafe buildings."

Mr. Truman urged state and local government officials at the conference to provide the leadership needed to carry out any plans developed here. He noted there have been fewer traffic deaths since he called a similar national traffic conference last year.

Margaret Truman Has Six Concerts Slated During May

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—Mrs. T. J. Strickler, voice coach for President Truman's daughter, Margaret, disclosed today that Miss Truman has six definite concert engagements at the moment, mostly in the South.

Besides Miss Truman's debut before a Pittsburgh audience on May 20, Mrs. Strickler said in New York that the young coloratura soprano will sing in Cleveland, May 22; Dallas, May 25; Fort Worth, May 26; Amarillo, Tex., May 28, and Oklahoma City, May 30.

Mrs. Strickler said that Miss Truman will make two more engagements for June, but that they are not yet definite. She said the President and Mrs. Truman are glad Margaret is making the tour but will not attend any of the concerts.

Miss Truman's recital in Pittsburgh and the subsequent tour will mark the first time she has sung for a "live audience." At her professional debut with the Detroit Symphony, which was broadcast March 16, there was no audience in the studio.

Optimists Talk Over Many Plans

Discuss Possible Junior Baseball Team; Marble Tourney Scheduled Soon

Thursday meeting of the Optimist club in The Castleton hotel revealed that the local chapter of the organization has many plans for the youth of the city this spring and summer.

After hearing a fine talk on community recreation by Art Alexander, with an accompanying film, the members were told that Ted Martin has notified all the schools in the schools in the county concerning the marble tourney to be held at the closing of the term. Wayne Fullerton has been named chairman of the prize committee for this tournament.

May Sponsor Baseball
Wes Mann, Jr., and Sam Ross of the American Legion Junior Baseball league appeared before the members and asked them to sponsor a team in the loop this summer. Decision on this matter was shelved until the next meeting.

Arthur Graham was supervisor of the "Small Flies" model airplane session last night, and Otto Pearall, boys' work chairman, appointed Harold Boak to supervise the June 8 meet of the hobbyists, which will be held at Wilson's airport.

May 22 meeting has been advanced to May 21, at which time the club members will meet with the "Optimists" in an anniversary get-together.

Indications point to many of the local members attending the big district rally to be held in Butler Saturday, May 10.

DANISH QUISLINGS KILLED

COPENHAGEN, May 9.—(INS)—Seven Danish quislings who had killed scores in a campaign of terror during the German occupation died today before a firing squad.

The seven-man gang also had been found guilty of causing property damages estimated at one million dollars.

Their deaths brought to 14 the number of traitors executed in Denmark since the liberation.

St. Mary's Sodality Crowning May 18

Miss Margaret Murphy Will Reign As Queen Of May In Ceremonies At 3 P. M.

At the regular meeting of St. Mary's Sodality held Wednesday evening in the church Lyceum final plans were made for the annual May Crowning. Miss Margaret Murphy has been chosen this year to place a wreath of spring flowers on the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary in fitting ceremonies, at 3:00 p. m. Sunday, May 18, under the direction of Rev. Fr. James F. Harvey.

Miss Murphy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilary E. Murphy, of 17 South Greenwood avenue, and the Apostolic Committee chairman of the Sodality.

Attendants in the Queen's Court will be: Peggy Crookston, Frankie Cunningham, Marie Hanlon, Nancy Lehman, Gretta League, Mary Lowers, Joan McCarthy and Peg O'Leary. Crown bearer will be Charlotte Kantes, while Karen Marshall and Marie Criswell will serve as train bearers.

The procession, made up of all the Sodality members of the Parish, with Kay Schooley and Nell Valley leading the Rosary will be led by Cross Bearer, Ursula Rowbottom and Banner Bearer, Peg Valley. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Charles McBride, director of Propagation of the Faith, in the Cleveland Diocese.

During the business meeting, Father Harvey, director of the Sodality, spoke on Sodality aims and goals, stressing points which need strengthening. Father Harvey pointed out that he would like to see some new projects proposed and also some enthusiasm for open discussion shown at the meetings. He urged the girls, particularly during the month of May, to practice private devotion to the Mother of God, for what is done on the side in private life is most necessary, in addition to monthly Sodality Mass and Communion, to make for good Sodality.

Mary Lowers, the Sodality librarian, distributed the new books for the month. Dolores O'Leary, of the Social Committee, announced plans for a tureen dinner to be held during the week of May 18. Nancy Lehman, vice prefect, will represent the Sodality this Sunday at the Workers' Sodality Day May Crowning at St. Paul's Cathedral in Pittsburgh. Agnes O'Connor and Nancy Lehman disclosed plans to attend the New York City Summer School of Catholic Action at Fordham University this summer. Ann Heany and Eileen Campbell were appointed Marshalls for Communion Sundays for the remainder of the year.

The final summer meeting of the organization will be held during the first week of June.

Acquit Youth Of Charges By Co-Ed

Glenn A. Whittle Jr. Is Found Not Guilty In Trial At Ann Arbor, Mich.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 9.—(INS)—Glenn A. Whittle, Jr., is back in his Chicago home today free of charges that he dragged a University of Michigan co-ed into the back seat of his car and criminally assaulted her.

Twenty-one-year-old Whittle, a former U. of M. physical education major, was acquitted by a jury of nine men and three women last night.

The complainant, 19-year-old blonde Patricia Ann Brighton of Dearborn, Mich., was expelled, along with Whittle, when she charged him with assaulting her on Jan. 16 after a private party in the college town.

Whittle ran toward his mother as jury foreman Garth Barrington delivered the verdict.

Mrs. Whittle gleefully applauded along with about 100 of Whittle's school friends.

Tell Everyone
After Circuit Judge James R. Breakey discharged the jury, Whittle pointed with his mother and Mrs. Whittle cautioned newsmen.

"Make sure that everyone knows about this to make up for all those bad stories," Mrs. Whittle had remained stoical throughout the eight-day trial, but, as the jury retired last night, she appeared nervous as her son's friends assured her of a favorable verdict.

She later likened the situation to the Chicago Cubs' pennant for "going right down to the end and then all of a sudden, when all seemed lost, win the game."

Miss Brighton and her father stood in the hallway of the courtroom to hear the verdict. Then they turned and walked away.

Whittle shook hands with friends and thanked them for their loyalty. He left the courtroom with two attractive co-eds on his arm.

German Workers Stage Strike For Increase In Food

HAMBURG, May 9.—(INS)—A one-day strike of an estimated quarter-million Hamburg workers began at noon today in protest against critical food shortages in the British zone of Germany.

Union leaders called out factory workers and those employed in municipal service industries and the postal system.

The strikers demanded that the Hamburg and Ruhr districts be declared emergency areas for purposes of food allocation that all food stocks be immediately checked.

Union leaders warned that unless their demands are met they can "go longer be responsible."

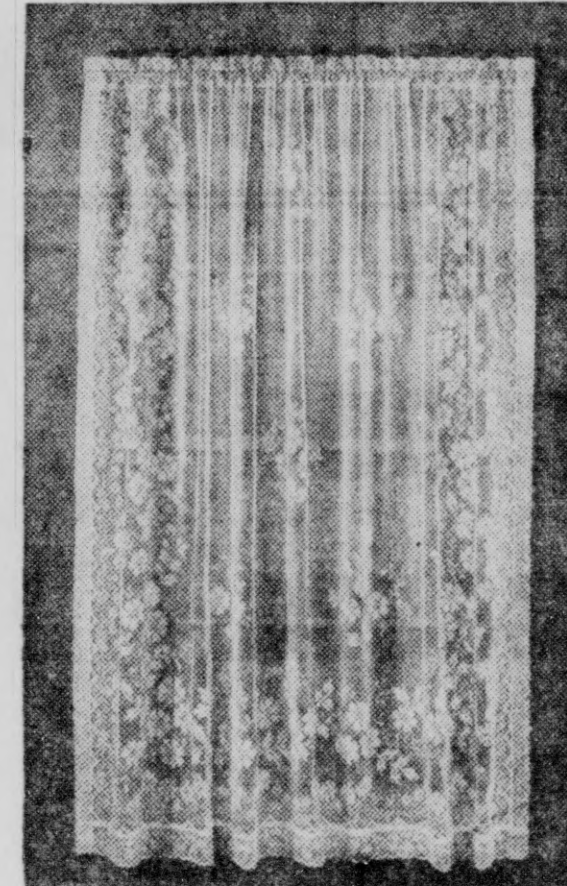

They claimed that Hamburg workers are receiving only 800 calories a day.

The only persons exempted from the strike call were workers assigned to unload ten shiploads of food expected from the United States.

SOVIET MAGAZINE WARNS OF NEW WAR

LONDON, May 9.—(INS)—The Soviet magazine New Times claimed today that "international reaction" is attempting to provoke a third world war despite the "utter defeat of Fascism."

The Soviet news agency Tass quoted the magazine as saying: "The present instigators of war are not averse to starting everything anew."

"In their blindness, however, the standard bearers of international reaction fail to see the world is not what it was before the war."

Beads made from shells and called wampum, which were the medium of exchange for North American Indians, took its value from its color. Dark wampum made from the hardshell clam was the most valuable.

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, May 9.—(INS)—Here's to the man of the hour in these troubled hours. He's devil-may-care Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Doug explained today why his first independent production, "The Exile," is going along so smoothly.

In his hand-picked cast and crew, there isn't one single sourpuss.

"I wouldn't have one of them around me," Doug said, "as long as you're making pictures, you might as well enjoy yourself doing it."

"And, believe me, this is a happy company."

Doug pointed out that he felt him-

Union Township
Residents Hear Of
Plans For Area

Meeting Held Thursday Evening At High School Gives Facts
On Projects

Attorney Walter Kieler, legal advisor for Union township, addressed the member of Union Civic and Athletic Association at the monthly meeting of the organization in the Union township high school auditorium last night.

Attorney Kieler explained legal questions confronting the residents of Union township concerning street lighting, bus service and similar topics. Mr. Kieler spoke in detail on the "foot frontage rule" of assessment to bear the cost of improvement in the township.

Memorial Program

Following Mr. Kieler's remarks, other items on the agenda were discussed from the floor. It was revealed that plans were being made for a memorial program to be held at the high school on Memorial Day. The program will honor the war dead of Union township with Dr. R. P. Galbreath as guest speaker on the program.

It was stated at last night's meeting that the U.C.A.A., in conjunction with the township school board will go ahead with a proposal to erect lights and a fence on the high school athletic field this summer. Monies to defray the costs will be derived from such projects as can be arranged by the association. The first project to be launched by the committee under Arthur Pierce will be a series of dances to be held in the high school auditorium.

Cabinet Members
And Truman Discuss
Portal Pay Measure

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—President Truman met for an hour with his cabinet today discussing pending legislation topped by the portal-to-portal pay bill. The portal bill now awaits Presidential action following intensive study by government departments. Mr. Truman returned to his office, the White House said, after a meeting with his cabinet for an hour. After that, however, a number of cabinet members remained behind for an hour and 35 minute discussion about which there was some air of mystery.

Young 'Healer' Remains Aloof From His Hosts

Bearded 'Miracle' Worker In California To Cure Wealthy Wine Dealer's Son

PALM SPRINGS, Cal., May 9.—(INS)—Avak the Healer remained in seclusion from the outside world today as he began another day of prayer and meditation in effecting the "miracle" cure of Vaughn Arakelian, an epileptic for 27 of his 37 years.

The healer, who was brought from Teheran to cure the son of Krikor Arakelian, one of California's wealthiest men, refused to see his hosts or the disciples who made the journey to the United States with him.

The bearded 20-year-old miracle worker has restricted himself to a diet of milk, cheese and bread, members of the Arakelian family reported.

Cripples Flock to Scene

In the meantime, additional hundreds of crippled and sick persons flocked to Palm Springs to enlist the services of the faith healer in curing their ills.

Dr. Sumbat Yeghizarian, who accompanied Avak from the Middle East, announced the healer would see no one until Vaughn Arakelian is cured. Avak had confidently stated at his first meeting with his patient that he would be well within two weeks.

The elder Arakelian, multi-millionaire Fresno, Cal., vintner, urged the nation's ailing to stay away from Palm Springs. He said:

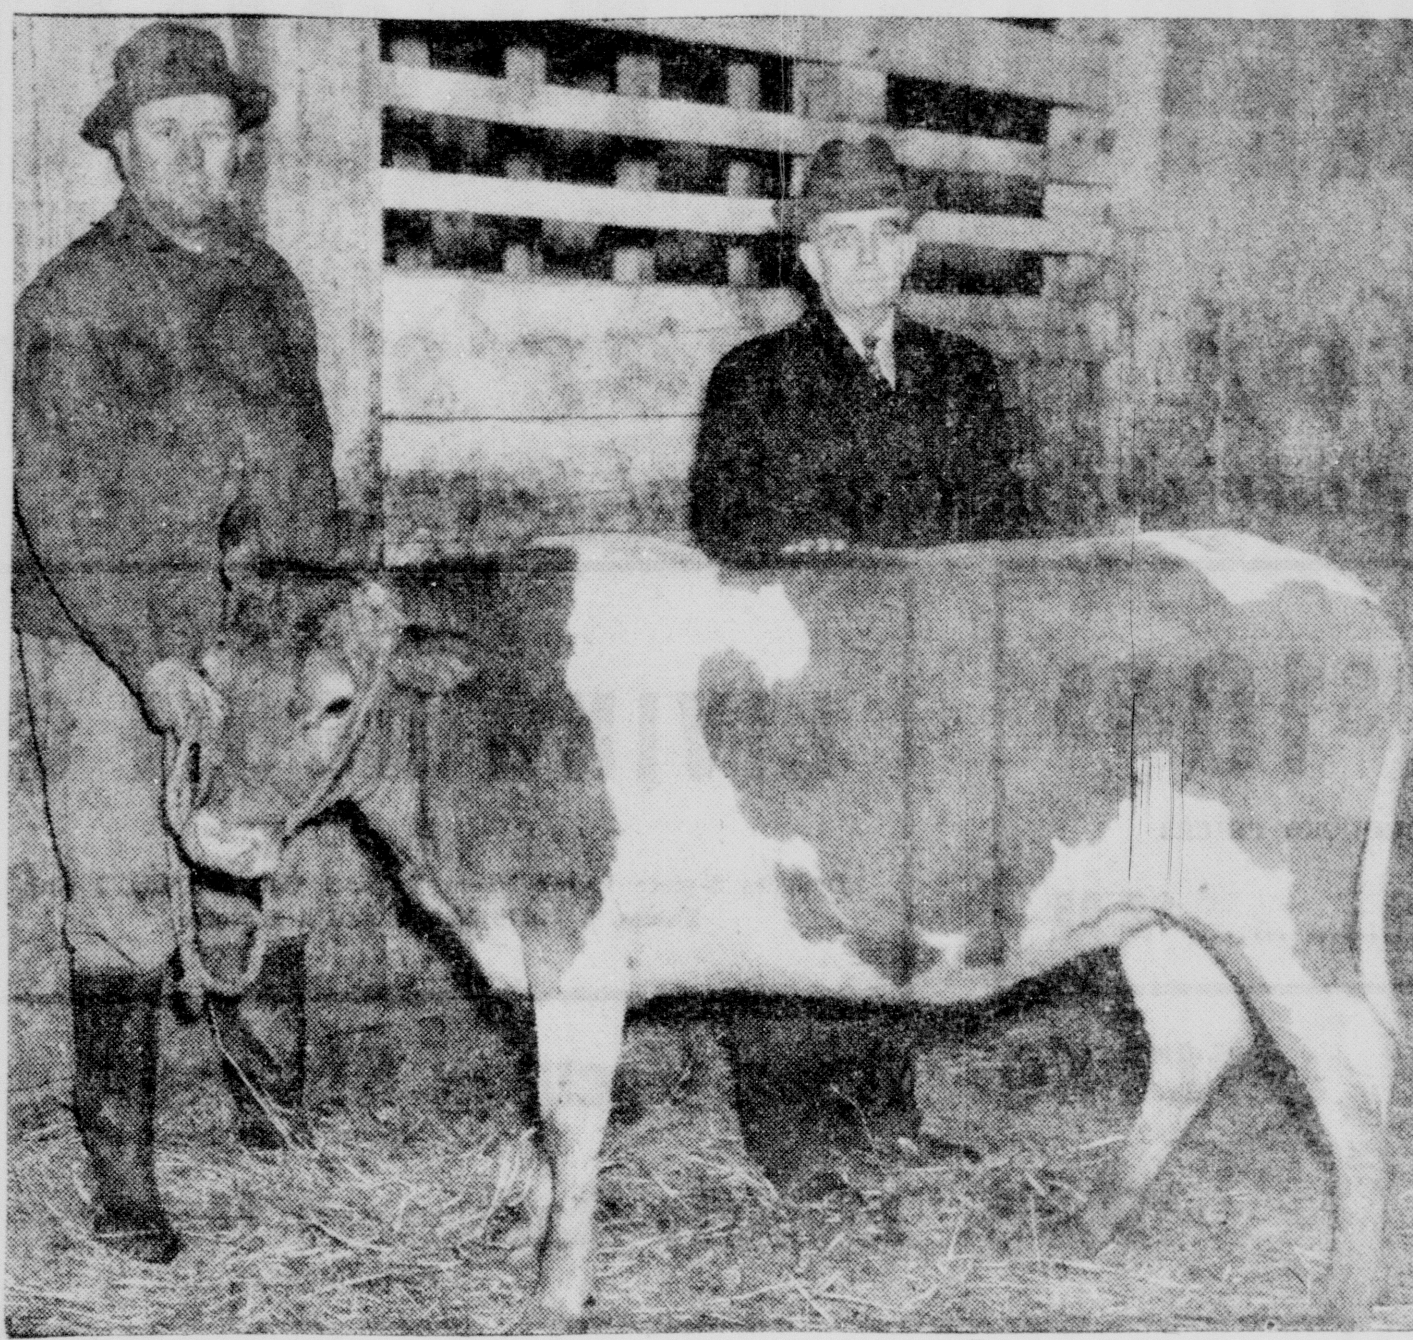

"We do not want people coming here at great expense when as yet we have not seen whether Avak has real healing ability."

We ourselves do not know anything about him except what we have read in reports from Iran.

"If Avak does some good then we will invite the lame and the crippled to come to him for aid, but not until then."

Glass is produced in furnaces which burn from the roof and maintain a heat of 2700 degrees Fahrenheit.

County Heifer Starts For Europe

First bred heifer to be shipped to Europe under the "heifer project", from Lawrence county, is pictured here with Wm. H. McCullough, Master of Pomona Grange, who selected the animal, and Robert Trotter from whom it was purchased.

First of a number of bred heifers to be shipped to Europe by the Joint Committee of Churches to replace the dairy cattle destroyed by the war, left Lawrence county today.

Lawrence county Pomona grange purchased and shipped the first animal from the county. Westfield

Presbyterian, Mt. Jackson U. P. and Bethel U. P. churches, all in North Beaver township, have also purchased cattle to be shipped shortly.

"Heifers to be shipped to Europe," William H. McCullough, master of the Lawrence county Pomona, said today, "are purchased by the interested groups all over Pennsylvania and sent to a collection center in Lancaster county." From this collection center the animals in the "heifer project" are shipped overseas.

Threaten Seizure Of Hoarded Food On German Farms

German Farmers Face Threat Of Use Of Troops To Secure Needed Food

BERLIN, May 9.—(INS)—The threat that troops would be used to seize hoarded foodstuffs to avert an emergency today confronted German farmers in the American zone.

Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, commander of the American zone, prodded farmers into making food deliveries and warned that he would not hesitate to use the army. He added:

"If such drastic measures are necessary, we will take them. We can confiscate the farmers' stocks. If this is necessary, I will order it. I still have an army here."

Clay expressed the hope that he will be able to avoid taking such measures. He stated that he would broaden the requisitioning powers of German officials of the Bi-Zonal Food Committee.

The military governor added that present American wheat allocations are sufficient for German needs and that the main reason for the temporary food shortage is shipping delays.

Women's Clubs Adjourn Parley

BUCK HILL FALLS, Pa., May 9.—The 50th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs was adjourned today with dedication to the task of working for "peace and friendly understanding among nations."

The keynote was set by the groups new president, Mrs. J. Stewart Williams, of Kingston, when she said:

"Righteousness, truth and honor must be restored as the controlling virtues in the affairs of men. If peace is to be restored to the world."

Mrs. Paul Koenig, of Spring Grove, retiring president, announced the board of directors had endorsed House Bill 417 calling for increased salaries for teachers.

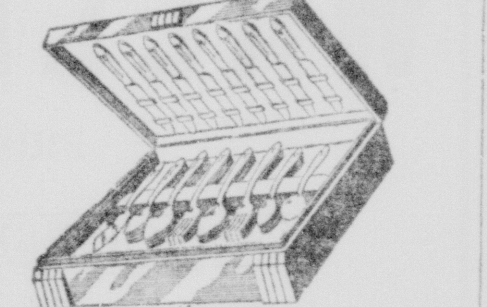

This year's convention was the largest in history, with nearly 1,500 women participating in the three-day program.

WARNS AGAINST REPEATED USE OF SULFA, PENICILLIN

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—(INS)—Dentists were warned today that repeated use of sulfa drugs and penicillin for minor mouth infections will lessen effect of the drugs on the patient in more serious illnesses.

Dr. Leon H. Collins, Jr., of the University of Pennsylvania delivered the warning at the final session of the 79th annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Dental Society.

Dr. Collins said many doctors were using the "wonder drugs" indiscriminately and frequently in treatment of mouth conditions.

New Insurance Plan To Be Effective On Railroads July 1

Railroad Employees To Be Insured Against Loss Of Wages From Temporary Disability

Beginning July 1, approximately 210,000 railroad employees in this state will be protected by the new sickness insurance system for railroad workers, according to Mr. D. D. Forbes, field representative of the Railroad Retirement Board. The program was established by amendments of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act passed by Congress last July. Any kind of illness or injury will be covered, regardless of how or where it occurred, it was pointed out.

To become eligible for benefits after July 1, the employee must (1) have earned $150 or more in railroad employment in 1946, (2) be unable to work for at least 7 days out of a consecutive 14 day period, and (3) mail an application and a doctor's statement showing that he is unable to work to an office of the Railroad Retirement Board within seven days after the first day he wishes to claim.

The amount of benefits any employee may receive will vary from $1.50 to $5.00 a day depending on his 1946 earnings. The lowest rate will be received by an employee who earned in 1946 from $150 to $199 and the highest, $5.00 is for the employee who earned $2,500 or more.

Mr. Forbes is at the Pennsylvania Freight Station, West Washington street, on the first and third Wednesdays of each month to answer inquiries and aid applicants to complete their railroad retirement forms from 9:30 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Oratorio Will Be Sung Sunday

Music Club Chorus To Present 'Hora Novissima'
At First Methodist Church

MRS. W. J. CALDWELL
TO BE DIRECTOR

Sunday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church "Hora Novissima" by Horatio Parker will be presented to the public by the Music club chorus.

There are few words superlative enough to describe the beauty of this oratorio. Its contrapuntal perfection ranks with Bach who was the master of counterpoint.

Mrs. William J. Caldwell has directed the Music club chorus for the past eight years. Each year she has grown in musical stature. With consummate skill she achieves the most artistic effects with this very difficult and beautiful oratorio.

Soloists For Event
The soloists are Mrs. John K. Reznor, soprano, graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and a former soloist in the First Presbyterian church at Franklin, O.; Mrs. Paul Friend, contralto member of the choir of the First Presbyterian church, this city; M. Paul Connor, tenor, of Ellwood City, soloist of the First Baptist church and a member of the Shelby male chorus, Ellwood City, and a member of the New Castle Consistory choir, and James Hayden, baritone of New Wilmington, who has been soloist with many outstanding choral societies. Since his return from overseas service with U. S. Marine corps, his reputation as an oratorio singer has been enhanced by engagements throughout the tri-state area.

New Castle has undoubtedly two of the most brilliant accompanists in this part of the state, in the person of Mrs. Richard Allen at the piano and Edwin Lewis at the organ. They handle this most difficult accompaniment with masterliness and sympathetic understanding.

During the trying days of rehearsal, Miss Ruth Weir and Mrs. J. M. Evans accompanied the chorus when it was impossible for Mrs. Allen to be there. Seating arrangements for the chorus are in charge of Miss Charlotte Taylor and Mrs. James Moorehead.

In keeping up interest in attendance at rehearsals and the multitude of duties which fall to a manager Mrs. C. W. Cameron has done her usual fine work. Miss Jane Kyle is librarian in charge of the books of the oratorio rented from a music publishing firm. Miss Maude Mitchell is treasurer and Mrs. W. E. Horner and Mrs. G. G. Horchler are the decorating committee.

Members of the Music club who will usher at the presentation of the oratorio are Miss Evelyn Bernine, Miss Elizabeth Emery, Mrs. David T. Evans, Mrs. Delbert Fletcher, Mrs. S. Glenn McCracken, Mrs. Jay L. Reed, Miss Barbara Schmitz and Mrs. Paul Welsh.

Mrs. George Strehler is president of the Music club.

The presentation of "Hora Novissima" is sponsored by the Ministerial Association of New Castle.

Identify Man
Who Ended Life
Last January 18

NEWARK, N. J., May 9.—(INS)—An elderly, neatly dressed man who committed suicide last Jan. 18 by taking cyanide, has been identified today by Newark police as Edward M. Kern, of Allentown, Pa., whose questionable deals won him notoriety in the U. S. and abroad for half a century.

Kern, Swiss-born expert on high finance, promoted hotels, founded a brewery, a Bethlehem Pa., trucking business and even served a term in Sing Sing prison, N. Y., in connection with a European jewel theft.

He decided then to give the eye to someone who could make use of it. He had it removed last week. Now he hopes it can be successfully transplanted to the eye of a totally blind person, and restore sight.

Regarded as a "Miniature Jim Brady" Kern was found dead in the Robert Treat hotel in Newark. Police identified him by business papers, the signatures of which matched those on documents he had signed while president of the trust company.

Chief of Detectives Frank Dyer, said the identification was positive. He estimated his age as 77.

Police are trying to trace Kern's most recent activities, for he had been out of the public eye for twenty years. His diamonds were nowhere to be found. In addition to the $200 burial money in the envelope, he had only 17 cents in his nattily-tailored suit.

Pittsburgh Vet
Donates His Eye

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—A Pittsburgh veteran, whose right optic nerve was destroyed by a German machine gun bullet more than two years ago, today had donated the eye to the eye bank for sight restoration, Inc., in New York.

George Nold, 32, was told by physicians that, while the cornea of the eye was undamaged, sight could never be restored because of the damaged nerve.

He decided then to give the eye to someone who could make use of it. He had it removed last week. Now he hopes it can be successfully transplanted to the eye of a totally blind person, and restore sight.

FOOD SHORTENING
PRODUCT REDUCED

A price reduction of two cents a pound for Spry, a food shortening product, was announced on a nationwide basis and in New Castle last night by Lever Brothers company, Cambridge, Mass.

This is the second price reduction within two weeks, a spokesman said, in keeping with President Truman's price reduction program. Ten days ago the firm announced a 10 per cent cut in prices of all its minor soap products.

In 1799 when the state of New York passed a gradual emancipation pact, there were more than 20,000 slaves in the state. Slavery was totally abolished on July 4, 1827.

The scene of the services is fashionable St. Thomas Episcopal church on New York's Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Knapp formerly was married to Frederick Griffith Peabody, scion of the Cluett-Peabody shirting family, but the marriage ended in a Reno divorce in 1935.

ONE BLAST TOO MANY
PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—William H. Beach of Pittsburgh was killed by his exploding furnace—$10,000 worth.

So he filed suit for that amount against the Holt Building Co., of Pittsburgh, charging the furnace was "improperly and defectively installed and regulated."

He charged in the action the heating unit exploded three times in less than a month, and was completely demolished in the last blast.

KEEP CITY CLEAN

The Editor,
New Castle News,
New Castle, Pa.

Our annual cleanup weeks are fine; they deserve the whole-hearted support of everyone. But why not an all year-round Keep-Clean program? If everyone would remember not to throw scraps of paper into the streets, how much better impression our city would make on visitors coming here—to say nothing of our own greater pride in our town!

But, no matter how many waste baskets are provided, children and grownups alike go out of the store into the yard and throw the paper wrappings from candy bars, etc., there, or in the street or parks.

The discouraged shopkeeper spends a great deal of time picking up the litter in a vain attempt to keep the space in front of his store tidy, but very soon it again looks like one of the dumps on the outskirts of town.

"Kleenex" was welcomed as a sanitary measure when it first appeared a number of years ago, but it has turned out to be something else with which to litter the streets. People with bad colds use it and throw it wherever they happen to be, to dry and distribute germs throughout the atmosphere.

If teachers and parents would try to arouse a spirit of civic pride in their children (and also remember it themselves), instructing them always to throw scraps of paper into a waste-basket instead of the yard or street, our city would soon become something we could take pride in, instead of feeling ashamed of it, as we must when we look at the litter of paper everywhere displayed.

Won't somebody please start a Keep-Clean Campaign?

Sincerely yours,
Laura Tucker McAllister

Acheson Favors Effective Use Of Assistance

Under Secretary Suggests Strategic Use Of Aid To Do Most Good In World

CLEVELAND, Miss., May 9.—(INS)—Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson declared Thursday that it is imperative that the United States give emergency assistance "where it will be most effective in building world political and economic stability."

Speaking before the Delta council Acheson advocated the use of this aid to promote human freedom and democratic institutions, in fostering liberal trading policies and in strengthening the authority of the United Nations.

Acheson declared that this financing is essential if the countries of the world are to continue to buy in 1948 and 1949 the items the United States can supply to build up the economy and sustain life. This policy, he added, is in line with that laid down by President Truman in his Greek-Turkish aid program. He said:

"Free peoples who are seeking to preserve their independence and democratic institutions and human freedoms against totalitarian pressures, either internal or external, will receive top priority for American reconstruction aid."

Acheson said another step which must be taken in the present situation is "to push ahead with the reconstruction of those two great workshops of Europe and Asia—Germany and Japan—upon which the ultimate of the two continents so largely depends."

Lastly he argued that retention of war powers to control the domestic sale, transportation and export of certain commodities is necessary for an economic and effective policy of relief and reconstruction. He mentioned steel, coal and wheat as among these. President Truman's powers expire June 30.

Cotton became a marketable crop in the United States in 1820 although it was comparatively undeveloped until the invention of the cotton gin in 1793.

Ellwood City Still Has Hope Of Keeping Mill

Citizens' Group Meets With Fairless; Complete Review Of All Factors Planned

ELLWOOD CITY today had renewed hope of keeping their National Tube company plant in operation. Cause for this hope came out of a meeting Thursday in the Koppers building, Pittsburgh between Benjamin Fairless, president of the U. S. Steel Corporation, and a citizens' group headed by CIO representative Samuel Neff.

Following the hour-long interview Neff announced that the Big Steel head had promised "a new and complete review of all factors having to do with the proposed abandonment of the Ellwood works of the Big Steel subsidiary."

Fairless himself will head a committee which will again inspect the facilities at the plant. Following this survey the corporation will again meet with Neff's committee to explain findings.

Other members of the citizens' group which accompanied Neff to Thursday's talk included Martin J. Kovach, president of Local 1220, CIO-USW; H. J. Abbatichio, chairman of the local grievance committee; Robert Griffith, committee secretary; William G. Clark, USW local vice president; and Patrick D'Andrea, Samuel Blatchford and Joseph Vaness, grievance committee members.

The interview was granted by Fairless following Neff's dramatic appeal to save the town before the stockholders' meeting in Hoboken, N. J., earlier in the week.

Biological warfare research brought such peacetime benefits as vaccines against the cattle plague, rinderpest, two high fatal poultry maladies, Newcastle disease and fowl plague, psittacosis and tularemia; and an improved toxoid to fight botulinus poisoning in food.

Governor Signs Fifteen Bills

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff announced he had signed 15 bills including a measure granting free fishing licenses to certain disabled veterans of World War II.

Duff has approved 88 acts of assembly and vetoed one. Other measures signed by the governor would transfer anthracite and bituminous boards from the public instruction department to the mines department; govern transportation of fuels on highways; permit political sub-divisions to purchase school buses from certain post-war funds; regulate railroad directors' meetings; permit borough councils to prescribe types of bonds for collectors; allow state-aided hospitals to continue to operate without resident internes; transfer state land to Towanda, borough for an airport; require milk orders to be cashed within a certain time; regulate training of internes and osteopaths; reduce temporarily the training period for internes; authorize the state board of licensure to issue temporary licenses to doctors licensed in other states; regulate professional licensure of minors; fix a specific date for payment of assistance to typhoid fever carriers.

New Lighthouse Honors Columbus

Plans Advance For Memorial Lighthouse-Tomb In Dominican Republic

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic.—(INS)—Construction of a memorial lighthouse tomb and museum for Christopher Columbus—dedicated to Pan American solidarity—recently moved a step nearer to realization.

A contract has been signed by Dr. Jesus M. Troncoso, chairman of the Columbus memorial lighthouse committee and Scotch architect J. L. Gleaves, whereby Gleaves will immediately begin planning construction details. The memorial will cost five million dollars and require five years to build, Dr. Troncoso estimated.

The memorial will be a flat lighthouse 1,200 feet long and 120 feet high and will assemble a giant re-cumbent cross.

Columbus' Bones Entombed
The bones of Christopher Columbus will be entombed in the main building which will house a Pan American museum containing Columbian and historic relics of the Americas.

The entire project will be divided by a series of units—40 in all—called "Canyons of Columbus", each 12 feet wide and 100 feet high, symbolic of the gloom, confinement and superstition of Columbus' time.

State CIO-AFL Union Fighting Anti-Strike Bill

HARRISBURG, May 9.—(INS)—Pennsylvania officials of the CIO and AFL Unions today whipped up opposition to strike-prohibiting legislation backed by Gov. James H. Duff and Republican legislative leaders.

The Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL) has summoned leaders of unions embracing utility and government workers and teachers to a conference Monday. The Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council (CIO) scheduled a meeting with its officials for Tuesday. Both meetings, to be held in Harrisburg, likely will result in conferences with Duff.

The proposed legislative program included measures to outlaw strikes by employees of gas, water and electric utilities and government workers. Teachers' staging a walkouts would face loss of tenure. Jobless benefits would be denied strikers. More stringent restrictions against labor such as outlawing closed shop agreements and secondary boycotts and requiring cooling off periods prior to strikers were favored by some Senate Republicans.

Dr. Edmund Cartwright, inventor of the loom for weaving cloth, was born in Nottinghamshire, England, in 1743, and educated for the ministry. He wrote poetry and articles for magazines, and had never invented anything until he made his power loom.

Blind And Deaf, Founder Of Mother's Day Quietly Awaits Finale At 83 Years

WEST CHESTER, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—The cheery little room at the Marshall Square Sanatorium in West Chester already is filled with flowers, although Mother's Day is still three days away.

Now and then, a quiet 83-year-old woman rallies from a sort of slumber in her white bed to appreciate the gifts of folks who want to thank her for founding Mother's Day.

But for the most part, Miss Anna M. Jarvis just sleeps away the last long years of a life devoted to the memory of her own mother—and to other mothers throughout the nation.

Next Sunday, while millions of persons pay tribute to their mothers, Miss Jarvis will receive a few visitors—members of the Anna M. Jarvis Mother's Day committee.

But her illness, which has confined her to bed, will prevent her from taking any active part in the day's celebrations. She is completely blind and quite deaf.

In No Pain
Attendees at the Sanatorium said Miss Jarvis suffers no pain, but spends most of the time sleeping. She eats very well, and enjoyed her 83rd birthday party a few days ago.

Miss Jarvis worked untiringly after the death of her own mother on May 12, 1905, to have the second Sunday in May set aside each year for Mother's Day.

Some years later she became a little disillusioned and bitter about the "mercenary" twist that some merchants used to capitalize on her day of tribute. She is still enthusiastic, however, about the true meaning of the day.

In addition to the American Beauty roses and other flowers that bank her room, she also has received telegraphed greetings from nearly every governor of the 48 states, and "literally thousands" of cards from private well-wishers.

Some years ago, the one hundred club of Philadelphia became interested in Miss Jarvis work and honored her every year with a luncheon. Since she has been confined to the Sanatorium, however, they have arranged instead to hold a church service in her honor. This year the service will be held in Saint Siméon's church in Philadelphia.

Provide Money
The club also has arranged to take care of her financially. Miss Jarvis had a little money of her own, according to William F. B. Koelle, president of the club. This, plus many contributions from club members, has been set aside as a fund, which will pay for her completely as long as she lives.

Numerous radio and other programs will mention Miss Jarvis on Sunday, according to Dr. William B. Richter, who last year wrote an official song for the Mother's Day committee.

Since then he has received official congratulations from President Truman, the queen of England—through her ladies-in-waiting—and from Pennsylvania's Governor Duff. This year he has received requests for copies of his song from program committees as far west as California. But few will know that he has written a sorrowful sequel in honor of his own mother, Hannah, who died in his arms a few months ago.

The poem, which bespeaks the true spirit of Mother's Day, is:—

"It's not quite a year since you passed away,

"And since I don't know your exact natal day,

"I'll say you were born on Mother's Day.

"You inspired me to write the official Mother's Day song,

"Which the world will sing long after I am gone,

"And I'll wear a carnation on each Mother's Day,

"In respect to my mother, whom God took away."

Miss Jarvis would approve.

RUBBER WORKERS TO CONFER
GREENSBURG, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Members of the CIO-United Rubber Workers of America will meet in Jeannette Sunday to vote approval of a new contract with the Pennsylvania Rubber Company granting workers an 11½ cent hourly pay increase retroactive to February 2.

At the same time, negotiations between the CIO-United Steelworkers and the Walworth Manufacturing Company, of Greensburg, resumed, marking the first break in the eight-day-old strike.

German Girl's Fiance Not Rich Scion Reported

Mix-Up Straightened Out; War Bride Off To Hollywood To Meet Real Peter Salm

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—Red-haired Gisela Vandenschen, a pretty German girl, was set today to board a train for Hollywood after getting it straightened out that her fiance Peter Salm definitely is not the millionaire socialite of that name.

Gisela, who arrived in New York on Wednesday from Germany, wasn't a bit disappointed that her fiance Peter Salm isn't a millionaire because she never thought he was. The mixup occurred when Gisela's fiance, was mistakenly identified as the Peter Salm who is the son of the late Count Ludwig Salm and Millicent Rogers, and now a student at Princeton.

Both German Educated
Both Salm's are German educated, both served as army sergeants in Germany, one in military and one in counter intelligence and both attended the same intelligence school in this country.

There, however, the resemblance ends. The Princeton Salm is heir to a large fortune as well as a Long Island showpiece mansion called "The Port of Missing Men."

The other Salm is a Los Angeles bookstore clerk who readily admits he isn't a millionaire and lives in one room "with kitchen privileges."

He and Gisela first met when they were children in Berlin and renewed the acquaintance while Salm—the Los Angeles one—served in Germany.

Gisela said they plan to be married soon.

Uphold Sentence In Sugar Scandal

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—(INS)—The Third U. S. District Court of Appeals upheld a five-year jail term and $12,000 fine imposed upon Robert Sealton of Neponsit, L. I., for aiding a sugar black market.

Sealton was convicted at Newark in March, 1946, for "aiding and abetting" a Lyndhurst, N. J., syrup firm to illegally obtain 25 million pounds of sugar within a year's time.

The defendant, 37-year-old Brooklyn syrup company president, was charged with giving the Fresh Crown Preserve Corp. a letter enabling it to get extra sugar from the ration board.

Government attorneys asserted the letter stated Sealton's syrup was being sold to the "Brooklyn Navy Yard."

Third U. P. Church Special Program On Mother's Day

Mothers Day will be fittingly observed next Sunday at the Third United Presbyterian church, East Washington street. All departments and classes of the Bible school will enjoy specially arranged programs.

At the morning worship hour, 11 o'clock, Miss Alma Lutz will conduct an impressive period honoring all mothers who are present. The pastor, Dr. J. Paul Graham, will use the famous Biblical character "Deborah" for his sermon basis.

The Third church pastor and choir will conduct the weekly radio church service at two-thirty o'clock. The choir will sing two numbers, Elmer Kanagy directing. Miss Lilian Sarver, church organist, will play the accompaniments. Dr. Graham will speak briefly on the theme "Calling All Mothers."

The Builders Youth Group under the sponsorship of Mrs. P. D. Gibson has planned a very interesting service for the Youth Hour of 6:30 o'clock. The two other Youth Groups, Fellowship and Pioneers, will be guests. The program centers about the Mother's Day motif. At the evening worship hour, 7:30 o'clock, the pastor will preach the third sermon in the series of Christianity, "The Fruits of Christianity."

QUITO, May 9.—(INS)—Dr. Neytali Ponce, vice-president of the United Nations assembly, took over the functions of a second high office today as Ecuadorian ambassador to the United States.

He replaces former Ambassador Francisco Illescas, who recently was recalled after premature publication of an Ecuadorian note on the border conflict with Peru.

BRITISH REVEAL NEW PLAGUE MIST FOR GERM WARFARE

LONDON, May 9.—(INS)—The London Daily Express stated today that a machine for producing invisible mists loaded with pneumonic plague has been designed by the British army for germ warfare. The newspaper's scientific editor, Chapman Pincher, wrote that the pneumonic plague is more terrible than the bubonic type which caused the great plague of London.

Wheat, rice, oats and corn are the four leading cereal crops of the world.

Common Crow Is Underrated

Near Top In Bird World
Brains Is Report Of
Smithsonian Institute

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—If you long to hear a little voice hiss "Mama" or "Papa" or even "Howdy-do" and the baby is a little slow catching on—your best bet is to get yourself a pet crow.

The Smithsonian Institution today published a highly rhapsodical bulletin on the common crow and gave it the nod as one of the smartest of our little feathered friends.

It indicated that if more people understood how smart and lovable crows really are they would hesitate to bomb out or dynamite the mass crow roosts where the birds congregate during the winter.

The bulletin pointed out:

Unusual Ability

"Pet crows are known to possess unusual ability to imitate the sounds of the human voice. They readily master such simple words as 'Mama', 'Human laughter is often imitated to perfection'.

"Papa', 'Hello', 'Howdy-do'. The Smithsonian admitted that a crow's singing voice is not the sort of thing that would outshine Lily Pons in mid-cadenza but said that it is highly attractive to other crows, which presumably is the point of the whole performance.

The institution commented: "The crow does not excel in its musical ability but it has a great versatility in its voice. It has an interesting repertoire of many calls and notes, which serves it well in its interrelations with its fellows. "It also has superior imitative faculties and captive crows have exhibited unusual aptitude in learning new calls."

Near Top in Brains

The bulletin pointed out that in 1937 some 26,000 crows were killed at Dempsey, Okla., in the bombing of a large crow roost and that 328,000 crows were killed near Rockford, Ill., with dynamite bombs.

While refraining from comment on the two incidents the institution's booklet noted firmly:

"The common crow, considered fair game by hunters when the ordinary shooting seasons are closed, rates near the top of the bird world in brains."

"And if some of its destructive behavior can be forgiven, it might be considered one of the most engaging of all feathered creatures in North America."

So what you thought was "caw-caw-caw" was "howdy-do" all the time.

Drive For Universal Military Training Urged On Truman

President Urged To Launch Drive
Before Summer Congress
Adjournment

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—The American Legion urged President Truman to start the drive for universal military training before summer adjournment of congress.

In a letter to the chief executive, Paul H. Griffith, national commander, suggested that the president's universal training advisory commission present an immediate expression on its findings for congressional guidance.

Griffith said that this procedure will allow "the executive branch ordinary important subject (UMT)." He added that it will help avoid universal training becoming an issue for partisan politics.

The Legion chief said "we can afford no defaults on this matter".

Griffith told the president that "time is running out", and added:

"It is my understanding that your advisory commission has held 14 meetings and heard in excess of 200 witnesses, since commencing its research last December. Though the commission may not be ready to tender a final report, I believe congress would welcome even a preliminary account of the commission's findings at this time for the sake of guidance."

Griffith cited the dangers of a "paperbag" security as described by Secretary of State Marshall when he was army chief of staff. He pointed out that Marshall said if the U. S. again elects to rely on Allies and the whim and error of potential enemies for future security, the treasure and freedom of America will be carried in a paper bag.

WILD GREENS FOR TASTY MEALS

"A kid'll eat ivy too—wouldn't you?" may be a little far-fetched, but it does bring to mind wild greens which we look forward to early in spring. Dandelion, lamb's-quarters, chickory, and other wild greens are ours for the picking.

The young tender green shoots and leaves are chock full of good nourishment. Because of their high iron content, greens readily take the place of that old sulphur and molasses tonic. In addition to iron they top the list of vegetables in vitamin A content.

Wild greens may be prepared and served in many different ways so the family doesn't have a chance to tire of them. Dandelion greens make a delicious salad and its easy to prepare. Just clean the greens well, cut up and add your favorite dressing. Usually dandelion greens are tastier with a hot sour salad dressing.

Another way to prepare dandelion greens as well as other kinds of greens is to cook them until just tender in a small amount of water. Season with butter or a cream sauce or hot French dressing and serve.

Sulphur was used for fumigations as early as 1,000 B. C.

Phalanx Favored To Win Rich Preakness Race Saturday

Jet Pilot Faces Test Of Victory In Derby Classic

Faultless May Also Be Among Leaders At Finish In Baltimore Race

TWELVE HORSES MAY FACE BARRIER

By LAWTON CARVER

BALTIMORE, Md., May 9.—The 57th annual running of the $100,000 added Preakness Stakes at Pimlico was expected to draw a field of 12 horses today, headed by the three who drove to such a dramatic finish in the Kentucky Derby—Jet Pilot, Phalanx and Faultless.

Scheduled to contest this rich old race with them were On Trust, Cornish Knight, King Jay, Uncle Remus, Secnav and Contest.

The entry box on old hilltop opened at 7 a. m. EDT, and all of their names were expected to be in it before closing three and a half hours later.

Mitmye Scratched

If the even dozen go, it will make Pimlico's Preakness the biggest money race since Azucar took the Santa Anita Handicap—and $100,000 first money—in 1935. Fourteen originally were expected to start, but Double Jay and Mitmye were declared out of it late yesterday.

Only three in the field seemed to matter in the pre-race dope—Jet Pilot, the Maine Chance Farm's beauty who won the Derby and Phalanx and Faultless, who chased him home in one of the closest finishes in the Churchill Downs classic ever has seen.

Phalanx Favored

The prospects were for a fast track and if the racing strip comes up that way, Phalanx is expected to go off as the betting choice, just as he was in the Derby. Faultless, the third choice in the Rose run, may be next to Phalanx with Jet Pilot only the third best on the mutuel board.

In the Derby, Jet Pilot was the second choice with the throng and Faultless third.

But if the track is off, like it was at Louisville, the Derby winner will pick up support. For he has proved he can go the route on an off track—turf fans still have to be convinced he can do as well on a fast one. Unless the weather man is wrong, the Preakness should tell the story.

Durocher Silent On Puerto Rico Job As Manager

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—Leo Durocher has "no comment" today upon reports that his services were being sought as manager of one of the clubs in the Puerto Rico winter league.

He has been "ruled off" as Brooklyn manager this year by Commissioner Chandler's "deliberate" to baseball" edict.

Here with his film actress wife, Laraine Day, the now almost silent ex-"lip" indicated he would listen to any propositions that President Benjamin Acosta of the San Juan club might make. There seemed to be only one trouble with that: This far Acosta hadn't made any.

Universals Will Meet Saturday

Members of the Universal Pottery baseball team will meet with Manager Mickey Huff at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at Prengels on Moravia Street Extension to get their uniforms and talk over the opening of the season in the city baseball league.

The Universals will again use Washington field as a home field this year, and last year were the runnersup to the Lawrence Indies for the league championship.

City Baseball Contracts In

Managers Meet Thursday And Hand In 1947 Contracts, League Opens Sunday

City Baseball league managers met last night, handed in their 1947 contracts, and are all set for the opening of the 1947 season Sunday with seven games on the card (weather permitting), at 3 o'clock.

Joseph O'Leary, vice-president of the league, conducted the meeting last night, with Michael "Jake" Babovsky, league secretary and treasurer assisting. Mr. Babovsky has placed the contracts in his trust.

Okay Umpires Offered. The managers voted to accept the offer of the Lawrence County league umpires for the season at $4.00 for seven innings and $5.50 for nine innings games. A new scale for the playoffs will be arranged, it was announced.

Release blanks have been ordered for the league and are now in the hands of the printer, it was stated. The managers were enthusiastic for the coming season and some hot ball games will be on the fire. Every team is looking ahead to the Shaughnessy playoff at the end of the season, for the championship.

Game Is Switched

Ryantown announced that their field will not be ready for the Sunday opener and have made arrangements for playing the game at Lee avenue with the West Side Tigers. The Ryantown team will be the home club.

Manager Zidow of the Indies is asked to get in touch with Mr. Walther at The News as to his game for Sunday. The Indies home field is not quite ready for play and they are booked with the Deweys.

Slovaks To Get Uniforms Tonight

Manager Steve "Snag" Russell of the Slovak baseball club asks that all players under contract report at the club tonight at 7:30 o'clock to get their uniforms. The Slovaks are using Clifton Flats for a home field and will open Sunday (weather permitting) at the Booker T. Washington field with the Colored Spartans.

Lockley Team Has Get-Together

Juniors Are Entertained With Program In Trinity Church By Lockley Brothers

Members of the Lockley Machine team of the American Legion Junior League had a pre-season get-together in the Sunday school room of Trinity church, Tuesday evening, with Manager Ted Clarke in charge of the arrangements.

Twenty boys were present, and they were made acquainted with their sponsors, Elroy and Sidney Lockley, who spoke to the boys about the coming season, on the game of baseball in particular, and sportsmanship in general.

Joe O'Leary was introduced to the boys as field manager and coach. He emphasized clean play and proper conduct on the field. Clare B. Book, principal of Senior High school, spoke on perseverance and the will to win in the sports world as related to the will to succeed in later years.

Following the talks, the boys were entertained with motion pictures of track and field events by Mr. Book. Shuffleboard and table tennis were enjoyed, after which hot dogs and pop were served. The Junior League season opens on May 19, with 10 teams in the field.

DRIVERS STRIKE WON'T STOP RACE AT INDIANAPOLIS

Wilbur Shaw, President Of Speedway, Plans To Race On Memorial Day, Regardless

INDIANAPOLIS, May 9.—(INS)—There will be no change in the Memorial Day 500-mile Indianapolis speedway classic because of disgruntled drivers.

That was the promise today of Speedway President Wilbur Shaw after the American Automobile association rejected a plea of the American Society of Professional Automobile Racers for revocation of the AAA sanction.

Members of the society are 34 dissatisfied drivers who have sworn to boycott the 500-mile race because they claim the speedway refused to raise prize money from $75,000 to $150,000.

The drivers argued before the AAA contest board that they also should receive a cut of the time-trial gate receipts.

Promised More Money

Shaw said he had promised more money to drivers and car owners "if conditions warrant." He added there was no chance the society members would be permitted to drive in the classic unless they piloted cars already entered. Owners have until May 15 to name their drivers.

James Lamb, secretary of the AAA contest board, said the drivers' request was "too ridiculous to discuss, since there is no reason to revoke the 500-mile race."

Lamb also said the AAA would not sanction a proposed Memorial Day race to be staged by the society.

Joe Lencki, a Chicago race car owner and a spokesman for the society, said earlier his organization would seek AAA approval of a race at Langhorne, Pa., or at the Wisconsin State Fair Grounds in Milwaukee.

Titan Athletes Hear Stimulating Talk By Overend

Annual Westminster College Athletic Banquet Draws 100 To Ferguson Hall

COACH WASHBAUGH GOOD TOASTMASTER

NEW WILMINGTON, May 9.—

Westminster College paid homage last night to the various athletic teams—football, basketball, track, swimming and golf last night at Ferguson Hall with a banquet that drew about 100 young athletes girls and boys cheerleaders, and special guests, including Clarence "Buddy" Overend of Carnegie Tech and Dr. H. Lloyd Cleland, president of Westminster College.

The banquet began with Rev. W. J. McKnight, college pastor and Dean of Men, delivering the invocation. The dinner that followed was a tasty, well prepared, and expertly served meal consisting of stuffed pork chops, mashed potatoes, and the trimmings with apple pie and ice cream the topper. The young athletes really "dug" in and cleaned up all the food before them, the menu not being hard to take at all.

Washbaugh Toastmaster. Following the serving of the dinner, Coach Grover "Pappy" Washbaugh assumed the role of toastmaster and as he said he elected himself to the job after scanning the dictionary to see what toastmaster meant.

Washbaugh revealed another side last night and if he ever tired of coaching can become an actor. The dinner that followed was a tasty, well prepared, and expertly served meal consisting of stuffed pork chops, mashed potatoes, and the trimmings with apple pie and ice cream the topper. The young athletes really "dug" in and cleaned up all the food before them, the menu not being hard to take at all.

Guests Introduced

First to be called on for a few remarks was President H. Lloyd Cleland. He was the college's first to thank the boys and girls for their fine cooperation in behalf of the college sport program and said that the school appreciates the efforts that have been put forth for Westminster in the field of sport. Dr. Cleland's talk, firm and to the point was well received.

Washbaugh then introduced the following guests who stood and took a bow—Ross Ellis, business manager of the school, Mel Hetzler, football coach and assistant in basketball, Harold Barry, track and swimming coach, Don Cameron, music instructor and band leader, Dr. Walter Berberich, former coach of tennis, and college professor, Dr. William Thomas, head of the school of journalism at Westminster and publicity director.

Susan Scurr, college dietitian and John Miller, custodian of equipment at the college gym were also introduced. Charles P. "Bugs" Walther, New Castle News sports writer was called on for a few words.

Overend Stimulates

Clarence "Buddy" Overend, veteran athletic director at Carnegie Tech University was the final speaker on the program, and chose for his subject "Extra Curricular Activities" and gave a most stimulating talk to the young athletes being a very fluent speaker. Overend is able to put over his thoughts in a manner that stamps him as a forceful speaker.

During the course of his talk Overend urged the athletes to learn to take your place, self control and discipline, keenness of mind and alertness, brains and courage and college friendships as lasting ones. He urged also the athletes keep themselves in good shape not only in college but in later life as well.

Overend stressed the pleasant relations existing between Tech and Westminster, and said that as long as he stays at Tech relations will be the friendliest. He paid high tribute to the athletic teams of Westminster for their fine sportsmanship, and their splendid achievements.

The banquet was brought to a close by the intoning of benediction by Dr. John Orr, acting Dean of the College.

Assault Favorite In Dixie Handicap At Baltimore Today

Triple Crown Winner In 1946 Makes Bid Against Strong Field

PIMLICO RACE TRACK, Baltimore, Md., May 9.—(INS)—King Ranch's Assault was a 3 to 5 favorite to take today's running of the $30,000 added Dixie handicap.

Last year's triple crown winner was slated to go against six other in a bid to take over third place behind Whirlaway and Stymlie among the all-time leading money winners. A victory would move Assault ahead of Armed, which currently is out of training.

Assault went to the post today with winnings of $473,770 in pursuit of the winner's end of more than $20,000 in the mile and three-sixteenths handicap for horses three years old and up.

Eddie Arcaro was to pilot Assault against Natchez, Rico Monte, Flash Burn, Talon, Statesman and Alexis.

All eyes of the A. A. A. racing world is focused on the team cars of Bill Boyd of Steubenville, Ohio, and Ed Johnson of Los Angeles as they have won the first three feature races of the Ohio-Michigan circuit.

Cards-Red Sox Start To Move

Cards With "Harry The Cat" In Shape Defeat Brooks, Red Sox Top White Hose

BOSTON BRAVES MURDER PIRATES

By LES CONKLIN

NEW YORK, May 9.—The first phase of interseasonal competition in the major leagues is over today with the St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Red Sox finally showing definite signs of their championship 1946 form.

Cardinal morale once again is riding high despite the fact that the team still is in last place in the National League and its star first baseman, Stan Musial, is ailing.

Red Cards Of Old

The Red Birds showed their old fire last night in trimming their main rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, in the rubber game of their series. Harry Brecheen held the Brooks to six hits and won easily, 5 to 1. Ralph Branca was the victim.

Musial now is thought to be suffering from ptomaine poisoning. A blood test for appendicitis was negative, but the batting king was still suffering abdominal pains, and will be out of action for a while.

Cubs Win Two

The Cubs downed the Phillies twice, 2 to 1 and 8 to 7. In the opener Hooks Wye won a mound duel from Fred Schmidt, former Cardinal making his first major league start since 1944.

Johnny Beazley, another former Cardinal mound star, won his first start as a Boston Brave with a 12 to 3 decision over the Pirates.

Ken Trinkle was credited with his third victory within a week as the Giants beat Cincinnati, 7 to 4.

Red Sox Win

In the American League the Detroit Tigers, although idle, were boosted into first place when the pace-setting Chicago White Sox were held to three hits and beaten 3 to 0 by Dave Ferriss of Boston. The Red Sox, winners of four straight, are only half a game behind the second-place Pale Hose.

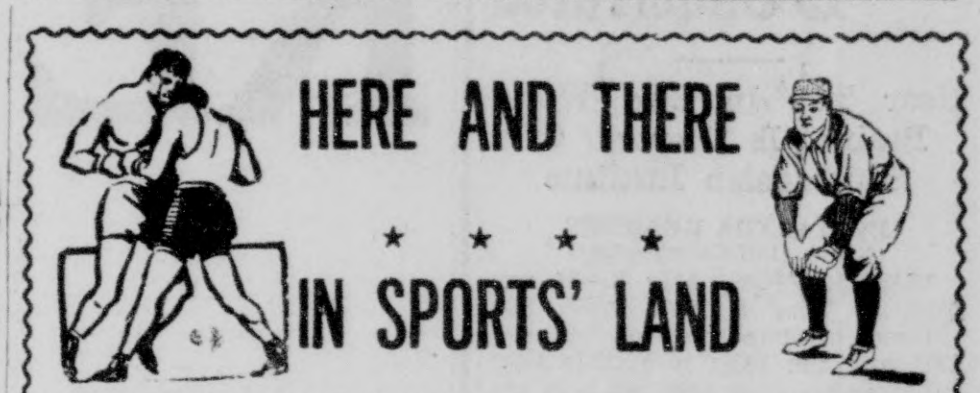

The Athletics defeated the St. Louis Browns in a night game 5 to 3.

The Cleveland-Yankee and Washington-Detroit games were called off because of cold weather.

Bob Malloy Given Release By Bucs

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—Bob Malloy, the Cannonsburg, Pa. pitcher the Pittsburgh Pirates recently purchased from Cincinnati, today was released outright to Indianapolis of the American Association.

The release was not unexpected, inasmuch as the Bucs already had 15 pitchers and must cut their roster from 32 to 28 before next Thursday. Purchase of pitchers Kirby Higbe, Hank Behrman and Cal McLish from Brooklyn last week made it imperative that some of the hurlers would be released immediately.

FROM December 7, 1915, until May 9, 1947, is a long, long time; in fact, much longer than one would care to hang by his heels. Since that date, two wars were fought, an atomic bomb was dropped, the U. N. is here and the international situation is clouded. However, on that date there occurred an incident to most folk, but to ex-Champ George Chip, a travesty of the ring. It was then that Referee Young Donahue awarded to Jeff Smith a fight, via a foul in the seventh round at Boston. Chip maintains, and stoutly so, to this day that he actually knocked out Smith, a right good middleweight of those days. Poring through records, one finds an account of their fight, written by Doc Almy of the Boston Post. It reads: "At the time of the foul, Chip had Smith bleeding from the mouth, nose, and in distress, and a knockout appeared close at hand. Smith evidently felt this way about it himself, for several about the ring claim to have heard him say: 'Let up will you; I'm all in.' The request had no effect upon Chip, and in his eagerness to win, whipped in left and right to the body. Smith went down, there was a cry of foul, and the referee, after taking a quick glance at Smith, ruled against Chip. Some said a foul was committed while others didn't see the blow. In the opinion of the writer, the blow was low, but, at that, Chip had the battle practically won at the time."

A summary of other writers' views shows Jack Malaney of the Boston Journal writing: "At the time the punch landed, it would have taken a very charitable person to say Smith was having the better of the milling. Smith was away behind, in distress. The foul came at a bad time for it surely made it appear that Smith was taking advantage of a technicality." The writer for the Boston Globe chronicled that "it was an unsatisfactory ending and many of the spectators thought that Smith quit after being hit under the ribs. It was tough luck for Chip, for up to that point, he had Smith outscored by a big margin." Chip won the middleweight championship by knocking out Frank Klaus, then repeating the knockout, in Pittsburgh. He held the title six months, to be knocked out himself, by Al McCoy whom wouldn't give Chip a return "go". Usually boxers, when they lose by a knockout, claim it to be their "hardest fight", but not Chip. He points with pride of his two knockouts of Billy Murray, the Petuluma chicken, his rugged fights with George (KO) Brown and battle with Sailor Petroskey. Nowadays Chip is content to watch the "other fellows" punch each other. He seldom attends a fight. He is a watchman for the Pennsylvania Power company at their West Pittsburgh plant.

After 24 years in baseball, Jimmy Fox, whose big bat rattled the fences for Philadelphia and Boston back in the 30's, wound up his baseball career yesterday, retiring as manager of St. Petersburg in the Florida league. . . . Art St. Clair, of Walnut street, caught a trout in the Little Neshamock, Tuesday night, which had a fly and a portion of the leader in its mouth. Some other fisherman had hooked the fish and it broke the leader. . . . Bronco Kosanovich, center, and Bill Moore, tackle, have accepted invitations to play for the Collegians in the New York Herald-Tribune's football benefit next fall. The Penn States are under contract with the Steelers. . . . Young Tanner, a promising welterweight, has been suspended, until he pays a $250 fine to the British Guiana control board for failure to appear for a boxing bout with Fritz Zivic, docketed for Trinidad, April 29. By the way, Fritz has turned 34 years of age.

WILL PLAY TONIGHT

Tonight at 5:30 o'clock the Johnson Bronze and Sons of Italy softball teams will stage an exhibition game at Dean park. It was announced by Manager Ben Goudan of The Bronze and Nickie George of the Sons of Italy. All members of The Bronze desiring to play softball are asked to report.

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—If Pirate followers are disappointed over recent losses by their favorites, they're not showing it at the box office of the Pittsburgh baseball team.

Sundays' doubleheader with the sagging champions of the world, the St. Louis Cardinals, has been sold out for more than two weeks.

By LAWTON CARVER

International News Service

NEW YORK, May 9.—So you want to bet $2 on a horse. OK. I'll tell you.

I sat in a restaurant Wednesday night with an able horse trainer who said Phalanx looked like a cinch in the Preakness Saturday. I won't mention the horse trainer's name because he said he didn't want to be quoted and, moreover, he is not famous.

However, he saw the Kentucky Derby in which Phalanx ran second by a neck to Jet Pilot.

Was Good Rider

My horse trainer is one of the best in the business, and is an ex-jockey, going all the way back to the days when they raced at old Latonia down in Kentucky.

He rode against the best of them in his riding days and, of course, he is training against the best of them now.

He said: "You newspaper fellows established Phalanx as the favorite for the Derby and now you are trying to get away from him although he was beaten by only a neck."

Beaten By Neck

"And he was beaten that neck after getting off badly and being forced to run in and out all the way around the track."

"I thought Eddie Arcaro rode a great race, trying to get his mount past bunched horses and I still think Phalanx would have finished 10 lengths back under another rider."

"It takes an Arcaro to get off badly and still come on to a virtual photo."

All of the foregoing is a horse trainer's opinion. Here is mine. The Preakness will be won by Jet Pilot or Faultless.

Jet Or Faultless

I like Jet Pilot because he must have been about two lengths in front at the sixteenth pole in the Derby—and that is the distance of the Preakness. The latter is a mile and three-sixteenths, or the finish is at the 16 pole for the Derby route.

If it can't be Jet Pilot, then Faultless should bang in there. The latter is picked strictly because Trainer Ben Jones can be figured on to get his horse in shape for the Derby, but in such shape that if he falls there he will still be able to get maximum run in the Preakness.

There is a lot of talk around New York about On Trust. I don't know what that means. He won the Santa Anita derby but couldn't do better than fourth in the Kentucky Derby and in my own particular book—such as it is—doesn't rate with the three leaders, which are Jet Pilot, Phalanx and Faultless.

Easy Picking. Phalanx will have the best rider in the Preakness in the person of Eddie Arcaro, but Jet Pilot will have the little man on his back who won in Kentucky, the same being Eric Guerin. Doug Dodson will be on Faultless again.

The thing for you to do for your duce is to pick the winner from among those three.

Don't ask me. I spend all my time trying to get out of hook.

Losing only one member from the 1946 Southern Intercollegiate championship team, LSU's golf gladiators this Spring loom as "the team to beat" in Southern divot digging circles.

Greenberg Will Consult Doctor About His Arm

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—Hank Greenberg, Pittsburgh's $115,000 investment in purchase price and 1947 salary, has arrived in New York to consult his personal physician as to the advisability of an elbow operation.

The big slugger was removed from the Pirate line-up before Wednesday night's game in Boston when an X-ray examination disclosed the possibility of a chipped bone in the injured area.

It was feared that an operation might keep Greenberg out of action for upward of a month.

Joe Barone Wins In Second

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—Joe Barone, 125, of Pittsburgh, wasted little time in putting away Chuck Jackson, 123, Pittsburgh, in the main event of a fight show at Pittsburgh's Aragon Gardens last night which five of six bouts ended in knockouts.

Barone was scarcely touched by Jackson, and belted away at will, until the bout was halted at 2:02 of the second round after Jackson had hit the canvas three times.
